

100

We still have a few

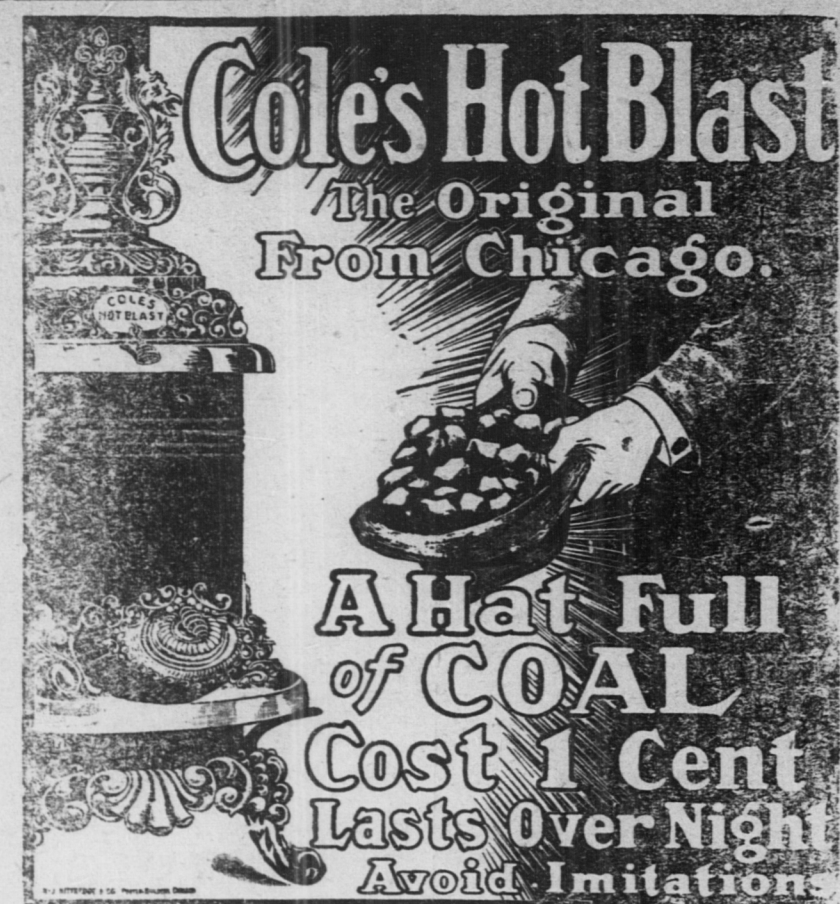

Rugs and Carpet Samples

that we are selling

At a Bargain

Bennett and Higgins

Furniture and Undertaking

Cole's Hot Blast

The Original From Chicago

A Hat Full of COAL

Cost 1 Cent Lasts Over Night

Avoid Imitations

The original COLE'S HOT BLAST HEATER and HIGH CLOSET COOK STOVES. The only real air tight stove made. We guarantee this stove to take half the fuel and to keep the fuel longer than any other stove on the market. Call and we will show you why.

D. B. Shackelford & Company

VICK'S Croup and SALVE

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

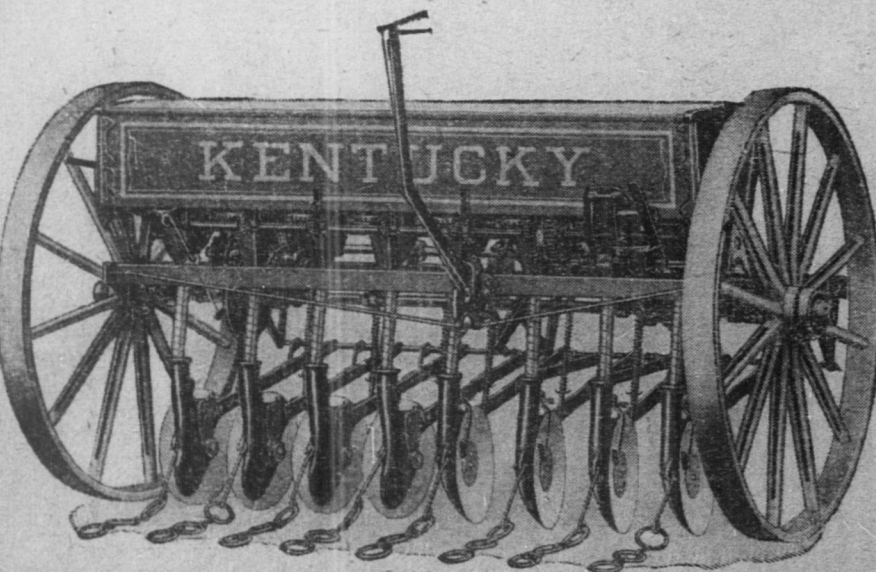

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Write to: Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions on your case and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper. 1-6

The Kentucky Grain Drill Deposits the Seed in the Ground Right

The Double-run Feed will sow on the smaller side Wheat, Rye, Etc. and on the larger side Peas, Beans, Etc. The Fluted Force-Feed can always be depended on to give the positive feed. The Speed Transmission gives the operator twenty changes in quantity of seed for each—forty in all. The Disc Bearings are dirt and grit proof and can be easily oiled.

DOUGLAS & SIMMONS

The Climax-Madisonian the Best Paper in the State $1 a year

Is Tuberculosis Curable?

EVERY once in a while people will ask "Do you really think Consumption can be cured?" and then, when they are told that thousands of cases all over the world bear witness to the fact of the curability of this disease, they wonder why their several friends and relatives, who died with tuberculosis, were not cured.

Tuberculosis is curable, but not everyone is cured, and not everyone can be cured. The chief reason why more consumptives are not cured is because they have waited too long before they heeded the warning danger signals of the disease, or because some doctor to whom they went did not recognize this deadly plague. In its early stages, consumption can be cured, and the patient can generally resume his normal life within a period ranging from six months to two years, depending on circumstances. As high a percentage of actual recoveries from tuberculosis may be found in really early cases who follow the right course of treatment as in almost any other infectious disease.

What, then, is the right course of treatment? This article cannot prescribe for individual cases, but it can and will tell what are the essentials in taking the cure for tuberculosis.

First of all, there is a good doctor on whom you can rely and whose advice and inspiration is most valuable to you. He will not give you much medicine, because there isn't any. Drug or "cure" that he can prescribe that will do more than to relieve some immediate symptoms, such as constipation, cough, headache, etc. If your doctor begins to talk of a "marvelous remedy" which will cure you, it is time you looked for another physician. That man is more than likely a quack and is simply after your money. There is no sure or quick "cure" or remedy for tuberculosis that you can buy at a drugstore or that a doctor can give you.

The second essential in the cure of tuberculosis is fresh air. To the healthy person the best tonic is fresh air at work, at play, and during sleep. To the consumptive, however, air is medicine. He must take it in as large doses as he can, the more the better. It may not be easy for one who has been accustomed to indoor work to sleep and live outdoors, but since fresh air is vital, he must accustom himself to being outside all he can. At sanatoria for the treatment of tuberculosis, patients are out of doors on porches or elsewhere almost all the time. If one is at home, he can with a little ingenuity arrange devices for outdoor sleeping and sitting. The National Tuberculosis Association, 105 East 22nd Street, New York, will send free of charge to anyone a booklet entitled "Directions for Living and Sleeping in the Open Air."

The next essential in the cure of tuberculosis is rest. Like fresh air, rest must be taken as a medicine by the consumptive. The reason for rest is evident, when you stop to think the way the germs of tuberculosis work. As they destroy the tissues of the lungs or other parts of the body, they make a wound or a cavity. This would, like a cut on your finger, will not heal if it is being opened all the time. To keep the lungs as quiet as possible, rest in bed, or in a reclining chair is absolutely necessary. The dose of rest you take will depend on your doctor's advice. He will tell you when you can get out of bed and when you can exercise and how much. But first and foremost you must learn to rest, in order to give the lungs a chance to heal.

Besides a good doctor, fresh air and rest, the cure for tuberculosis requires good, wholesome food. In normal health, food of the right kind is very necessary, but in tuberculosis it is doubly important. Food is the fuel which heats the body and gives it its energy or you might almost say "steam." In tuberculosis one must pay special attention to food, because he has to provide fuel not only for the ordinary functions of the body, but he must provide an additional supply to meet the waste and damage done by the germs of the disease. This doesn't mean that you must be continually stuffing yourself, for if you do you will upset your stomach, bowels, and liver, and you will counteract all the good the food might do. Neither does it mean that you must eat just one or two kinds of food, such as milk and eggs, which some people think are a cure for tuberculosis. They are excellent foods for people who can eat and digest them readily, and every consumptive should try to acquire an appetite for them. But meat and potatoes and bread and butter and good vegetables and almost any other nourishing, wholesome food in plenty of variety are needed also. Don't rely on tid-bits and sweets, but stoke your body furnace with food-fuel that will keep it running in the best possible order. Your doctor is the best one to advise on foods.

And, finally, a last essential in the cure of tuberculosis may be summed up in these words: "Don't worry." Keep a hopeful state of mind. If you give up and say "It's no use," you will never get well, no matter how patiently you follow the other essentials of a cure. Getting well depends for the most part on you. Backbone, hopefulness and courage will do more for you than all the doctors in the world.

Just a word as to where to take the cure. If you can go to a sanatorium, do so. There are not enough sanatoria for everyone, however. So you may have to stay at home and fight alone. Remember, tuberculosis can be cured if you take it in time and do your part.

[NOTE—This is the Last of a Series of Five Articles Prepared by The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, New York City.]

CANNOT EXPRESS TOO MUCH FAITH

That is the Why Robert Mobley Reposes Confidence in Tanlac.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 7.—Robert Mobley, who is probably the oldest restaurant proprietor in this city, made an interesting statement recently regarding the benefits he had obtained through the use of Tanlac. He said:

"Any man or woman, who is now suffering as I was, is very foolish to go on suffering when Tanlac can be had."

"For the past few years I have not enjoyed the very best of health. I was not real sick, but I was in a highly nervous rundown condition, and couldn't sleep well at nights."

"I had that tired out feeling and was weary of everything most of the time. My blood did not seem to circulate properly, and I felt chilly and all out of sorts, especially with a change of weather."

"Some days ago I learned of this Tanlac, and the work the medicine is doing convinced me that I ought to give it a trial. I got a bottle of it. I took a dose of the medicine right away and another dose at night. That night I slept fine, and next morning I felt fine."

"My nerves are now as steady as can be. I feel vigorous and am in good spirits. Tanlac is unlike anything I ever used. I believe it will help anybody who will give it a fair trial like I did. I cannot express too much faith in such a medicine."

Tanlac, the premier preparation, is sold in Richmond at H. L. Perry's drug store.

Buy's Paper

Messrs. John Woodward and Russell Dyche, of London, Ky., have purchased from Mr. John A. Creech and others, the East Kentucky News, published at Harlan. This makes the third paper Mr. D. has had on his string. They are: The Sentinel, London; The Citizen, Pineville; East Kentucky News, Harlan. Mr. William Dyche, a brother, who is now in Florida, will take charge of the Harlan paper.

Any skin itching is a temper tester. The more you scratch the worse it gets. Doan's Ointment is for piles, eczema—any skin itching. 50c at all drug stores.

The Salvation Army Christmas Dinner

The Army wishes again to provide the usual Basket and Christmas Dinner for the deserving poor and the Captain's wife and daughter, who are both known to the people of Richmond, will take an offering for this purpose. They will carry proper credentials. Any poor family in need of any one knowing of some one needing assistance, may communicate with the Captain at the undermentioned address as the Army is at all times willing to assist the poor of Richmond. The Captain's address is: Captain F. van der Ven, 509 South Upper street, Lexington, Ky.

A pile remedy that is entirely different from anything else, used both externally and internally, acting on the blood as well as on the digestive, a remedy without a superior. It is Meritol Pile Remedy, made and guaranteed by the American Drug and Press Association. Price $1.00. Madison Drug Store. 48-1m

Makes Good

With the United States Marine Corps forces landed in Haiti for the purpose of American interests in that war-torn little island is John S. Best, of this place.

John, who is a son of Mrs. Ada L. Best, Woodland ave., is a fighting unit of that highly efficient military arm of the Government service—the United States Marine Corps. Marines wear a distinctive military uniform, and they perform a soldier's duties while roving the seas aboard ship. They are always first handed when trouble threatens, and they bear the brunt of the initial fighting. Usually these "soldiers of the sea" are able to cope with any situation that may arise abroad without having to call in the army to assist.

Young Best enlisted in the United States Marine Corps at its Cincinnati recruiting station May 1, 1915, and already has had many and varied experiences as a member of that gallant organization, "the oldest branch of the service."

Colds Need Attention.

Internal throat and chest troubles produce inflammation, irritation, swelling or soreness and unless checked at once, are likely to lead to serious trouble. Caught in time Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey Lozenges the phlegm and destroys the germs which have settled in the throat or nose. It is soothing and healing. Pine is antiseptic; honey is soothing. Both together possess excellent medicinal qualities for fighting cold germs. Insist on Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. 25c all Drug Stores. 48-1m

An Improvised Weapon

By EVERETT P. CLARKE

I had barely completed my studies at the medical school at Moscow when the revolution came from which Russia suffered so much and gained so little. I was heart and soul for the cause of freedom and became active in trying to force the government to grant the people a constitution.

It was not long before I was arrested and sent to Siberia. Shall I ever forget that long, dreary march? And yet this long march to me was preferable to life in the mines at Kara, for in the former case we were in the open, while in the latter we were in the bowels of the earth. For five years I toiled with the others; then a change came.

Our condition was so miserable that many of us were constantly ill, but there was a period when our food was so bad and our quarters so poorly kept that an epidemic of disease broke out among us. Unfortunately for the general good, but fortunately for me, several of the physicians on duty at the station were taken ill. My name was down on the prison register as a physician, and I knew that every precaution would be taken to prevent my obtaining one. However, having access to the medical store, I was able to appropriate an arm that not every one would have thought of as such. This was a syringe.

So much for a weapon. I must next lay my plan. But this I found impossible. At least I could not carry out any specially arranged plan. I could only take advantage of any happening that gave promise of success. My opportunity came one night when all but those who were on duty as keepers were in bed. I was called upon to visit a prisoner who required my attention. To get what medical implements I needed for him I entered the supply room, and among other things took a syringe and a quart bottle of aqua fortis. Fortunately I found a spatula, which I appropriated also.

Having done my duty by the patient I left him, ostensibly to go to my room, for so long as I was on duty as physician I was permitted to occupy a room in the surgeon's quarters. But instead of going there I walked out of the building and made straight for the inner gateway. There stood a sentry who blocked my passage. I had filled my syringe with the deadly liquid and, suddenly drawing it, gave him a charge in both eyes. As I had expected, he sent forth a cry that would arouse the guard, but before they could respond I had, by the outer gate, a quarter of a mile away.

Here the guard, having heard the signals and coming on the run, leveled his piece at me and called on me to surrender. I did not flinch. I took his musket aside, and before he could recover his aim I had put an ounce of aqua fortis in his eyes. Had either of these sentries been placed by a bullet in my capture, but, besides the excruciating pain they suffered, they were blinded. Indeed, so intent were they on themselves that it is quite likely some time elapsed before those who joined them could learn from them what had happened. At any rate, I was well out on fields of snow before I heard any one coming in pursuit.

There seemed to be but one chance for me. That was to leave my room, penetrate the forest which lined it and hide in the snow till the search for me should be given up. So long as I kept the road I would leave no visible tracks, for the snow had been beaten hard, but the snow was so deep that I struck the loose snow. I ran like the wind, taking my chances on stumbling, till I heard shouts behind me; then, choosing a point where the road was much higher than the ground beside it, I ran swiftly to the embankment, jumped as far as I could and landed in a snowdrift.

Scattering the snow about me, I darted to the forest, a few hundred yards away. There I hid in a drift till the following night, when, not hearing any further sounds of those in pursuit, I continued my way westward, guided by the north star, which I kept over my right shoulder.

I had no provisions. Indeed, the only article I had provided myself with, besides my gun and ammunition, was a box of matches. Being attacked by a single wolf, I gave him a charge of aqua fortis in the eyes and blinded him with a billet of wood. I then skinned him with my spatula and cut from him sufficient meat to keep me alive for some time. Though his skin was untanned, it served to keep me from freezing to death on several occasions during my journey for freedom. I was obliged to travel along the southern shore of Kam bay. One day, coming to a rowboat, I appropriated it and pulled till I saw a ship near enough for me to attract the attention of its crew. They took me aboard and carried me to Sweden.

I am now a practicing physician in the United States.

For the Family Medicine Chest

Green Bay, Wis., Mrs. Wm. F. Bubala says: "I always use Foley's Honey and Tar for our children as it quickly breaks up their colds with no bad after effects, and they like to take it."

In this season of coughs, colds and croup, every family medicine chest should be supplied with a good cough medicine that can be relied upon when needed. Such a family cough syrup is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. This standard medicine has been on the market for years and in many sections was found in every home in which there were children who were not so handy and when money was scarce, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is an excellent medicine for coughs, colds, raw or inflamed throat, hoarseness, tightness and soreness of the chest, croup and whooping cough. It is an absolute cure for all these ailments, and contains only healing ingredients, and free from any harmful drugs.

SOLD EVERYWHERE

One Way to Shine. Do not neglect to keep your boots polished. You can always shine at one end if you cannot at the other. [Use our dollar and WE NEED IT

Bits of Byplay

By Luke McLuke

Copyright, 1915, the Cincinnati Enquirer

Learn Two New Things Every Day. Dear Mrs. Thompson—(1) How long should a girl wear her dresses when she is five feet two inches tall? (2) When a boy calls should you take his hat and coat or show him where to put them?

HANS AND GRETCHEN. (1) No matter what size a girl is, she should not wear her dresses after they are soiled. (2) Show him where to put them—From an Exchange.

The Wise Fool. The kleptomaniac will say: "She's hunting for the best cure. But those who are her constant prey think that she needs a rest cure."

Paw Knows Everything. Willie—Paw, what is the difference between a vacation and a vacation? Paw—A vacation consists of a lot of hard work that you are not compelled to do, my son.

You Know Him. I knew that he would come to grief. His actions made me frown. When he'd turn over a new leaf He wouldn't hold it down.

An Owe-Vation. "I had quite an ovation yesterday," remarked the grouch. "That so?" asked the old fogey. "Yes," replied the grouch. "Eight bull collectors called on me at the same time."

The Crime of 1915. Some unknown drunken man staggered down Seventh street and straightway over into Mrs. Mayme Jackson-Terrill's fine new grass plot and flower bed on Market street Tuesday. She chanced to be sitting on the front porch and gave him a severe tongue lashing.—Portland (O.) Times.

Poems You May Not Care to Read. PREPARE FOR DEATH. You had just as well get ready. You're to die, it may be today or tomorrow. You can't tell the minute nor the hour Cause so Repeat: You will live until you get old. But got to die. You just as well prepare your souls.

You better mind how you sow wild oats, Cause God will turn you into the goats. God placed Job's coffin in the sky Just because he had to die.

Names Is Names. Miss Patra Stockings is the daughter of a Jeweler in Belton, Tex.

Good News! Dear Luke—Do you know that Lynn C. Doyle is about to embark in the painting business in this city?—A. G. Lexington, Kentucky.

Things to Worry About. Luke McLuke has been on the water wagon for twenty-eight days.

Our Daily Special. The other fellow has no trouble in locating the silver lining in your cloud.

Luke McLuke Says: When you talk to some men about capacity they imagine you are talking about tankards.

There are a whole lot of jokes about a woman paying $100 for a new hat and about the fit friend husband throws when he gets the bill from the milliner. The truth of the matter is that you could walk around town for two hours and not see a woman wearing a hat that cost more than $15. And the average woman pays less than $10 for a hat.

Nature offers some old problems. A dog isn't married and hasn't anything to worry about, and yet a man lives four times as long as a dog.

After glancing over some of the bills passed by the state legislatures this year a man often wonders if the legislators spend their time crocheting wrist warmers while they are listening to debates.

The old fashioned boy who used to be sent to bed without his containing meal when he misbehaved now has a son who is sent to bed without his evening glass of beer when he does anything wrong.

The reason why a woman likes to be fat is because her husband is always complaining to the company that his gas bills are too small and that he burns more than he is charged up with.

You can marry in haste, but it is mighty slow work paying for the furniture at the rate of a dollar a week.

A boy's father knows that the boy is freckle faced, pug nosed and snagle toothed, but the boy's mother knows that he is the handsomest boy in the world.

A girl thinks a whole lot of a mustache if her fellow is raising it, but it is different if she is raising it herself.

There would be a heap less trouble in this world if a man would figure out how he is going to let go before he takes hold.

This is a free country, but the man who goes around with a flock of Sikye terrier whippers on his face has no business laughing at a Chinaman because the Chinaman wears a pigtail.

A Liberal Offer.

The undersigned druggist is authorized by the American Drug and Press Association, of which he is a member, to guarantee Meritol Hair Tonic to give satisfaction or the purchase price will be refunded. This indicates the confidence which they have in this preparation. Price 50c and $1.00. Madison Drug Store, Local Agency. 48-1m Taxes Now Due.

County and State taxes are now due. Penalty of 10 per cent will be added if not paid by December 1st. No deviation from this rule. It is the law and will be strictly enforced. Don't allow the penalty to be added and then blame your sheriff. Van B. Benton, Sheriff. 37-1f

Doan's Regulets are recommended by many who say they operate easily, without griping and without bad after effects. 25c at all drug stores. 11

First-class Livery and Hauling of all kinds. SPURLIN'S Livery Stable, cor. 3rd and Irvine. Phone 108. 30-1f

DR. CLARENCE D. HAWKINS
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
Office Main Street, over Middleton's Drug Store. Telephone 406

Dr. W. G. Combs
Physician and Surgeon
Telephone Kirksville Exchange 24-2
KIRKSVILLE, KY

FRANK LESLIE RUSSELL
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Richmond, Kentucky
OFFICE: OLDHAM BUILDING
Accounts collected. All business given prompt and courteous attention.

GRANT E. LILLY
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
Office Second Street Richmond, Ky.

J. A. SULLIVAN
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
KIRKSVILLE, KENTUCKY.
Office over State Bank & Trust Co., opposite Court House, on Main Street.

R. Emmett Million
Successor to Burgen & Lenny
DENTIST
OVER LANE'S JEWELRY STORE

Dr. H. J. Patrick
DENTIST
PAINT LICK, KY.

LET
D. M. STEVENSON
Do your job work in Carpentering. Phone 343.

Joe S. Boggs H. deB. Forbes
BOGGS & FORBES
CIVIL ENGINEERS & SURVEYORS
ARCHITECTURAL DESIGNERS
Office Bennett Bldg. RICHMOND, KY

Long Tom Chenault
AUCTIONEER
Sales Conducted in This and Adjoining Counties at Reasonable Rates
Phone 804 Richmond, Ky. Private Wire

People Ask Us
What is the best laxative? Years of experience in selling all kinds leads us to always recommend Rexall Orderlies
as the safest, surest and most satisfactory. Sold only by us, 10 cents.
Henry L. Perry.

JESSE COBB,
General Auctioneering.
Services Reasonable.
PHONE 83, or 481.

J. C. TODD & SON
Contractors
and Builders
Estimates furnished
IRVINE ST. RICHMOND, KY.

Harry M. Blanton,
DENTIST
Office West Main Street Phone 196

Dr. M. Dunn
Specialist
In Diseases of EYE, EAR, NOSE and THROAT
Oldham Bldg. Richmond, Ky.

D. R. Freeman
FIRE, ACCIDENT AND HEALTH INSURANCE
PHONE 285

BE PREPARED
POPULAR MECHANICS MAGAZINE
300 ARTICLES—300 ILLUSTRATIONS
KEEP informed of the World's Progress in Engineering, Mechanics and Invention. For Father and Son and All the Family. It appeals to all classes—Old and Young, Men and Women. It is the Favorite Magazine in thousands of homes throughout the world. One Dollar. Correspondents are constantly on the watch for things new and interesting and it is written so you can understand it. (The Shop Notes Department (20 Pages) contains Practical Hints for Shop Work and just ways for the handy man to do things around the home. Answers Questions (17 Pages) for the Boy and Girl. It tells you how to make things. It has the latest news and the latest news. It is the favorite magazine of the mechanic, carpenter and sportsman. It is the best value for the money. Order from your neighborhood or direct from the publisher. POPULAR MECHANICS MAGAZINE 6 No. Michigan Avenue, CHICAGO

Coughs and Colds Are Dangerous.
Few of us realize the danger of Coughs and Colds. We consider them common and harmless ailments. However statistics tell us every third person dies of a lung ailment. Dangerous Bronchial and Lung diseases follow a neglected cold. As your body struggles against cold germs, no better aid can be had than Dr. King's New Discovery. Its merit has been tested by old and young in use over 45 years. Get a bottle to day. Avoid the risk of serious Lung ailments. All Druggists. 48-1m

:JOB:PRINTING:

Persons in need of any Printing that can be done in a well equipped printing office will find it to their interest to give The Climax office a trial. Work guaranteed to give satisfaction in correctness and neatness and prices as low as is consistent with good workmanship

If You Need

Sale Bills	Wedding Invitations
Dodgers	Visiting Cards
Circulars	Business Cards
Blanks	Envelopes
Letter Heads	Statements
Bill Heads	Programs, Tags, Etc

A trial order might make you a permanent patron of The Climax when you want a job of Printing done

MANY YEARS OF SUPERIOR WAGON SERVICE

Old Hickory Wagons

We have a few 3 inch Old Hickory Wagons that we will sell

Cheap For Cash

Buy from us and get coupons in Pony Contest

OLDHAM & HARBER

Hardware and Implements

The Climax-Madisonian 1 Year $1

Daddy's Bedtime

How the Doggies Found
Their Bark.

"TELL us a different story tonight, daddy," begged Jack. "How different?" asked daddy as the children settled in his lap for the evening story. "Oh, one that will be real funny!" replied Jack. "I might tell you how the doggies got their bark," said daddy. "Oh, didn't they always have a bark?" cried the children. "Daddy held up a warning finger. 'Remember, this is to be what you wanted, a funny story. Well, to begin with, dogs used to whistle, something like mock-birds, and they were very playful. 'One day two men began chasing them, and they began to run. 'While the men were chasing them very hard and the dogs were playfully dodging them great drops of rain began to fall. 'And then sheets of rain came down, and the lightning flashed, and the thunder roared, and there was an awful time. Then the two men began running toward a great big boatlike thing that looked very queer because boats do look queer on dry land. 'The men kept running toward this boat, and now the dogs chased after them instead of the men chasing the dogs. But the men were running swiftly as though they were frightened, and when they arrived at the boat they opened the door, ran in and slammed the great door closed, right in the noses of the poor scared doggies. 'They shivered and whined and whistled, but there was really no use of their doing that. Then the rain came down in such torrents that the pup dogs ran up on a high hill to keep from being drowned. 'Then wonder of wonders! The big boat began floating and floated right past the tall hill where the poor doggies were whimpering, and they jumped off the top of the hill right onto the top of the boat, which was roofed over like a house. 'And there the poor little things remained for forty days and forty long dark nights, and all this time they didn't have anything to eat only what a dove brought them from the inside of the great boat. 'But after awhile the rain stopped, and the big boat settled upon the tip-top of a high mountain, and then the poor little doggies crawled off the roof down where all the other animals were. They didn't run away now when the two men who had chased them picked them up and fed them with warm milk. 'Then the poor little things tried to whistle their thanks. They tried and tried, but they could only say—' 'Bow-wow, bow-wow!' shouted Jack and Evelyn, laughing merrily at daddy's story.

FOR BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, COUGHS AND COLDS

Make the Best Remedy at Home—128 Teaspoonful for 50 cents.

If everything was sold in as liberal a manner as the below named druggists are selling Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectant, absolutely no cause for complaint or dissatisfaction could possibly arise from anyone. These druggists say—"Buy a bottle of this remedy and try it for Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Severe Cough, Croup or any Bronchial Affection, and we will return your money, just the same as we do with Schiffmann's famous Asthmador, if it does not give satisfaction, or if not found the best remedy ever used for any of these complaints." Why not take advantage of this guarantee and try this medicine, and get your money back, rather than buying another purely on the exaggerated claims of its manufacturer or on the strength of testimonials from others and run the chance of getting something worthless and also wasting your money?

128 Teaspoonful for 50 cents.

We are better prepared than ever to do high grade

Job Work

A trial will make you our permanent customer

ONE PRICE TO EVERYBODY

The Climax Printing Co
First Street Richmond, Ky

THE RIGHT WAY

to get what you want is to come to the

Blanton Lumber Co.

We have large assortments of

All Kinds of Lumber, Doors,
Windows, Etc

For The Home or For The Barn

We take pleasure in answering questions and giving you the benefit of our experience in what to use and how to use it. We had rather not sell you than to misrepresent an article. An ORDER PLACED WITH US becomes a CONTRACT to be filled regardless of changes in the market. We believe RIGHT NOW is the TIME TO BUY

We Guarantee a Square Deal
TELEPHONE 425

Let Us Work

OUT YOUR PROBLEMS

Ask the people whom we have done
Plumbing, Heating or Tin Work

for. We have skilled workmen for all kinds of work. We overhaul Heating Plants—hot water, steam or hot air. We keep in stock Galvanized Sheet Iron, Gutting, Pipe & Fittings Valves, Packing, etc., and can supply you on short notice

Richmond Heating & Plumbing Co.
Clay Building, Main Street Richmond, Ky
Phone 270 Phone 658

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson XI.—Fourth Quarter, For
Dec. 12, 1915.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Hos. xi, 1-11.
Memory Verses, 8, 9—Golden Text,
Hos. xi, 4—Commentary Prepared by
Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Again we are reminded that the two great topics of the Bible are the love of God and the sinfulness of man. His love to Israel as a people is everywhere set forth, and briefly summarized in the first verse of our lesson. In Ex. iv, 22, He said, "Israel is my son, my firstborn." In Deut. vii, 6, 8, He said, "The Lord thy God has chosen thee to be a special people unto Himself above all people," and the only reason given is "Because the Lord loved you." Of course He expected them to love Him in return (Deut. x, 4, 5), and it was their failure to do so, and their loving idols in His stead that grieved Him. In Isaiah, who was contemporary with Hosea (Isa. i, 1; Hos. i, 1), He says: "What could have been done more to my vineyard that I have not done in it? Wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?" (Isa. v, 4). In our lesson chapter He not only says, "I loved him," but He also says, "I taught Ephraim to bow; I healed them; I drew them with cords of a man with bands of love; I laid meat unto them" (verses 1-4). He ever reminded them that He brought them out of the land of Egypt and that He alone was their Saviour (Isa. xlii, 4; Hos. xlii, 3, 11); but he had to say, "My people are bent to backsliding from me. O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself" (verse 7; chapter xlii, 9). The sin was all theirs. His was the unchanging love. His yearning for them and desire to win them back to Him is seen in such words as these: "How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? How shall I deliver thee, Israel?" "O Israel, return unto the Lord thy God. * * * I will heal their backsliding; I will love them freely" (verse 8; chapter xlii, 1, 4). He again reminds them that He brought them out of Egypt: "My people would not hearken to my voice, and Israel would none of me. Oh, that my people had hearkened unto me and Israel had walked in my ways."

It was the man's cry when He was here in humiliation, "How often would I and ye would not." "He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, and the world knew Him not. He came unto His own, and His own received Him not" (Matt. xxi, 37; John i, 10, 11). What an almost unbelievable record it is that such a God of love should receive such treatment from those whom He so lovingly and patiently seeks to win to Himself that He may bless them and bestow upon them His fulness! Those who have this world's wealth to bestow have no difficulty in finding willing recipients, but the great God, the Creator of heaven and earth, who giveth to all life and breath and all things, in whom we live and move and have our being, can scarce get a hearing and receive only ingratitude from those for whom He does so much. Why does He bear with such a people and not blot us from off the earth as He did in the days of Noah? Because He is God and not man, and not willing that any should perish (verse 9; II Pet. iii, 9). He so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that we might not perish. The Son of God loved me and gave Himself for me. He bore my sins in His own body on the cross that I might be delivered from the wrath to come (John iii, 16; Gal. ii, 20; I Pet. ii, 24; I Thess. i, 10).

What kind of a hard, ungrateful heart must I have if such love does not constrain me to live no longer unto myself, but unto Him who so loved me? Whether in Israel or in believers now, the heart is always the same, deceitful and desperately wicked. But He is ever ready to receive and forgive all who truly turn to Him, and when the backslider comes to himself and returns to his Father, even though in rags and filth, there is a hearty welcome for him, with no upbraiding. Neither will He read a paper on "The Junior College."

Mr. H. S. Hilley, of Acworth, Ga., is now in his second year at Oxford University. He was appointed by competitive examination to a Rhodes scholarship in 1914. This scholarship yields $1,500 a year for three years. Mr. Hilley made his way entirely during his four years in Transylvania, where he received the A. B. degree in 1913.

By defeating the University of Louisville 26 to 0 on Thanksgiving, the Transylvania football team became champions of Kentucky. Coach Stewart's "machine" did not lose a game in the Kentucky or Southern Association during the season, and was scored against but once. The Thanksgiving game next year will be played at Lexington.

"Though egoistic, clanish and frequently afflicted with crass imbecility, college men nevertheless lead the world."

Contributors are notified that single space typewritten copy will not be accepted for publication however meritorious its contents may be. It is almost impossible for the compositor to follow the lines, is hard on their eyes and takes three times as long to set it.

Now is the busy season and we have all we can do without communications. Thank you for the interest displayed and we trust to be able to serve you at a more convenient time.

Deed Sent to England. Probably the first deed for property in Nicholas county sent across the ocean to be acknowledged was sent by County Clerk Sugg, of Carlisle, to Mrs. G. T. Lee, at Wjts, England, Friday. The deed is from the heirs of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Vaughn to Melvin Storey for a Nicholas county farm. Mrs. Lee was formerly Miss Anna Barlow, of Nicholas county. She married a Canadian officer who is now at the front and she resides in England.

UNTIE HIS HANDS

Cantrill Gives Warning

Washington—A warning that the Department of Justice will be called upon to investigate any undue depression in the price of this year's tobacco crop was issued here by representative Cantrill, of Kentucky. Cantrill, who is a prominent planter, has sent out the latest tobacco census to the growers of Kentucky, and with it the following statement:

"You will note that the stock of burley on October 1 this year is 46,000,000 pounds more than on October 1 last year, but I am reliably informed that the exports of tobacco since October 1 have been very large."

"This coupled with the fact that the crop grown this year is, according to tobacco experts, 100,000,000 pounds less than last year's crop, should make a good price this season."

This statement is made on the basis that the law of supply and demand regulates the price. Should the price be low it will be evident that the old condition of combination and arbitrary price fixing exists among the tobacco buyers.

"Should this condition arise it will be the duty of the Department of Justice to investigate conditions in the tobacco markets of the country."

War Upon Pain.

Pain is a visitor to every home and usually it comes quite unexpectedly. But you are prepared for every emergency if you keep a small bottle of Sloan's Liniment handy. It is the greatest pain killer ever discovered. Simply laid on the skin—no rubbing required—it drives the pain away. It is really wonderful.

Mervin H. Suister, Berkeley, Cal., writes: "Last Saturday, after tramping around the Panama Exposition with wet feet, I came home with my neck so stiff that I couldn't turn. I applied Sloan's Liniment freely and went to bed. To my surprise, next morning the stiffness had almost disappeared, four hours after the second application I was as good as new." At Druggists. 25c. 47-lm.

TRANSYLVANIA COLLEGE NOTES

"A college education increases one's chance for success three hundred per cent."

The annual meeting of the Kentucky Intercollegiate Association will be held at the Phoenix Hotel, December 4th, and will be attended by the presidents and faculty representatives of the colleges of Kentucky. Dean T. B. M. Junior College.

Mr. H. S. Hilley, of Acworth, Ga., is now in his second year at Oxford University. He was appointed by competitive examination to a Rhodes scholarship in 1914. This scholarship yields $1,500 a year for three years. Mr. Hilley made his way entirely during his four years in Transylvania, where he received the A. B. degree in 1913.

By defeating the University of Louisville 26 to 0 on Thanksgiving, the Transylvania football team became champions of Kentucky. Coach Stewart's "machine" did not lose a game in the Kentucky or Southern Association during the season, and was scored against but once. The Thanksgiving game next year will be played at Lexington.

"Though egoistic, clanish and frequently afflicted with crass imbecility, college men nevertheless lead the world."

Notice

Contributors are notified that single space typewritten copy will not be accepted for publication however meritorious its contents may be. It is almost impossible for the compositor to follow the lines, is hard on their eyes and takes three times as long to set it.

Now is the busy season and we have all we can do without communications. Thank you for the interest displayed and we trust to be able to serve you at a more convenient time.

Deed Sent to England. Probably the first deed for property in Nicholas county sent across the ocean to be acknowledged was sent by County Clerk Sugg, of Carlisle, to Mrs. G. T. Lee, at Wjts, England, Friday. The deed is from the heirs of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Vaughn to Melvin Storey for a Nicholas county farm. Mrs. Lee was formerly Miss Anna Barlow, of Nicholas county. She married a Canadian officer who is now at the front and she resides in England.

DON'T GIVE UP.

Discouraged Citizens Will Find Comfort in the Experience of a Richmond Man.

Experiencing is the modern instructor. Profit by the experience of others. It may save your life. The experience of friends and neighbors.

The testimony of Richmond people. Will bring renewed encouragement. Here is a case in point:

John Abner, carpenter and cabinet maker, 1015 Race street, Richmond, says: "I suffered from pains in my back and my kidneys were irregular in action. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Middelton's drug store, and they relieved me at once. My kidneys became normal and the trouble ceased."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Abner had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

A Novel Gift.

A sewing series is a great convenience for the girl with a small room. Get a carpenter to make the frame. Which is of wood, about a yard high and not more than twenty inches wide. About a foot from the top are two strips of wood, which serve as shelves for spools. Across the two frames stretch a piece of denim of the color of the flowers in the cretonne. Tack this firmly to the frame with brass-headed tacks. Cover the frame with the cretonne. Across the lower part of each frame fasten to the denim pockets of one a little wider than on the other. Fasten the frame of pockets place on one frame a second row. Fasten to the side of the frame a little bag for holding buttons. On this same frame midway between the spool shelf and the top put another row of pockets. Fasten above one a small cushion and above another a small needlebook, also of the cretonne. Just below the spool shelf on the other frame have a wide shelf, covered with the cretonne. This shelf is hinged with ribbon, so that it may close with the screen. Above this put another row of pockets.

The Best Gift. Margaret Deland, writing in Harper's Bazar, the subject of "Christmas Giving," says:

"Where any uncertainty exists let us give as a token of love or friendship or human kindness something that, while expressing these things, will at least be harmless. Let it be something that does not last, that brings the meaning and vanishes—something that never will know the indignity of the top shelf of the spare room closet."

"A knock at a friend's door on Christmas morning and the clasp of a hand do this. A growing plant does it. Yes, the loaf of bread, the jug of wine, but most of all, those little, simple, unassuming, the wilderness, the personal revelation, does it."

Help Your Liver—It Pays.

When your liver gets torpid and your stomach acts queer, take Dr. King's New Life Pills and you will find yourself feeling better. They purify the blood and give freedom from constipation, biliousness, dizziness and indigestion. You feel fine—just like you want to feel. Clear the complexion, too. 25c at druggists. 48-lm.

NOTICE.

It is proposed to devote the afternoon of Thursday, January 6, 1916, Farmers' Week, to a discussion of the problems of co-operative marketing. This discussion will be led by leading authorities on the subject from this and other institutions, and will be open to farmers and all interested therein. It is hoped that out of this discussion will develop definite plans for a constructive programme of work on the marketing questions of today which confront the farmers of Kentucky. You are cordially invited to attend this meeting and to participate in this discussion.

JOSEPH H. KASTLE, Director Ky. Agricultural Experiment Station. 46-lf

Rheuma--No Cure, No Pay

No matter how long you have suffered or what form of rheumatism you may have, Rheuma will remove the cause and make you well. It cleanses the urine acid from the kidneys, muscles and joints, purifies the skin and blood, makes you feel young again.

Here is convincing evidence: "I suffered from rheumatism for six years. I have taken three bottles of Rheuma and am entirely free from the disease." —P. W. Miller, Catawissa, Pa.

B. L. Middleton or any druggist will give you money back if you are not cured after using two bottles. Be sure to get the trademarked package 49-21. For dyspepsia, our national ailment, use Burdock Bile Beans. Recommended for strengthening digestion, purifying the blood. At all drug stores. $1.00 a bottle.

STOMACH MISERY QUICKLY VANISHES

Your money back if you want it is the way in which B. L. Middleton, the popular druggist, is selling Mi-o-na, the great dyspepsia remedy. This is an unusual plan, but Mi-o-na has so much merit and is almost invariably successful in relieving all forms of indigestion that he runs but little risk in selling under a guarantee of this kind. Do not be miserable or make your friends miserable with your dyspepsia. Mi-o-na will help you. If it doesn't, tell B. L. Middleton that you want your money back and he will cheerfully refund it.

A change for the better will be seen from the first few doses of Mi-o-na and its continued use will soon start you on the road to perfect digestion and enjoyment of food. Mi-o-na has been so uniformly successful that every box is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve. What fairer proposition could be made?

B. L. Middleton gives his personal guarantee of "money back if you want it" with every box of Mi-o-na that he sells. A guarantee like this speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy. 48-21.

BASKETRY GIFTS.

Quaint and Useful Presents That Can Be Woven.

This interesting basket is easily woven of a slender material and may be stained to match any room's color or left in its natural tan. This dainty basket is intended for fruit or, with a pretty dolly, may be used for lunch.

FOR FRUIT AND FLOWERS.

con sandwiches. Another with a tall, graceful handle is meant to hold a glass of flowers. Enlarged, it may be used to hang a small palm or greenery in a sunny window. Both these baskets may be developed in raffia in one or contrasting colors.

CHRISTMAS GIVING TO THE LITTLE ONES

What are you going to give your little girl for Christmas? Are you going to buy at random any bright, gaudy, attractive looking toy that strikes your fancy, or are you going to give her something that will enter into her life, give her an absorbing interest and cultivate in her those tastes which every womanly woman should have?

It is easy enough to select something for your boy. A toy steam engine, a mechanical automobile, a train of cars, a bicycle—one of these gives him joy. For the small girl there is little but dolls and doll "trash." However, the mother's opportunity for cultivating a girl's domestic instincts, for planting in her soul the seeds of daintiness and domestic economy, is golden at Christmas time.

"If I had a girl," said the wise mother of three boys, "I should first of all give her a corner in the nursery or in my own room for her 'house.' There I would let her set up miniature house-keeping that would occupy her days and be a joy to her forever. I would first of all give her a doll with a trunk full of clothes—not store clothes, but clothes just like her own, which I should myself make carefully. They should all be of wash materials, with buttons and buttonholes and sashes, hats and stockings to match. Nothing so delights a child as to imagine that her doll is a real live little girl and has a wardrobe."

"In her playhouse she should have a tiny kitchen, with real miniature pots and pans, of all which she would, of course, learn to use. Her doll should have a little bedroom and a bed, with sheets, pillowcases and counterpane, bed that the little mother should take a delight in making up. There should be a bureau, too, with drawers for dolly's clothes, and tiny toilet articles to be properly used and kept in order. There should be a wash-tub, an ironing board and toy irons, with which to sow the seed of desire for cleanliness."

L. & N. Time Table

South Bound

No. 71—Richmond to Stanford, departs 7:00 a. m.
No. 37—Cincinnati to Knoxville, arrives 11:43 a. m., departs 12:20 p. m.
No. 33—Cincinnati to Jacksonville, arrives and departs 11:38 a. m.
No. 11—Louisville to Beattyville, arrives 12:10 p. m., departs 12:15 p. m.
No. 27—Richmond to Louisville via. Rowland, departs 12:55 p. m.
No. 13—Louisville to Beattyville, arrives 6:45 p. m., departs 7:25 p. m.
No. 9—Cincinnati and Maysville to Stanford, arrives 7:25, departs 7:30 p. m.
No. 31—Cincinnati to Atlanta, arrives and departs 11:52 p. m.

North Bound

No. 34—Atlanta to Cincinnati, arrives and departs 4:15 a. m.
No. 10—Stanford to Cincinnati and Maysville, arrives 6:05 a. m., departs 6:10 a. m.
No. 12—Beattyville to Louisville, arrives 7:15 a. m., departs 7:20 a. m.
No. 28—Louisville to Richmond via. Rowland, arrives 12:15 p. m.
No. 38—Knoxville to Cincinnati, arrives 1:20 p. m., departs 1:45 p. m.
No. 14—Beattyville to Louisville, arrives 1:30 p. m., departs 1:35 p. m.
No. 32—Jacksonville to Cincinnati, arrives and departs 5:18.
No. 70—Stanford to Richmond, arrives 5:20 p. m.
Nos. 10, 21, 37, 33, 37, 34, 28, 38, 32, are daily trains. Nos. 71, 9, 10, 2, 4, 70, daily except Sunday.
Nos. 33 and 32 are fast, solid through trains, Cincinnati, Ohio, to Jacksonville, Fla., carrying drawing-room, observation sleeping cars and coaches. Dining car between Cincinnati and Atlanta.

Party Frock For the Young Miss

Designed by Franklin Simon & Co., New York.

THIS girlish frock for the young miss is a wide skirted model, with puffs and points below the waist line. The tulle of pale pink taffeta has bouffant puffs at the hips and falls in deep points on the sides. All this dolly-dressing is over the daintiest of petticoats of silver lace.

ANNA MAY.

See The New

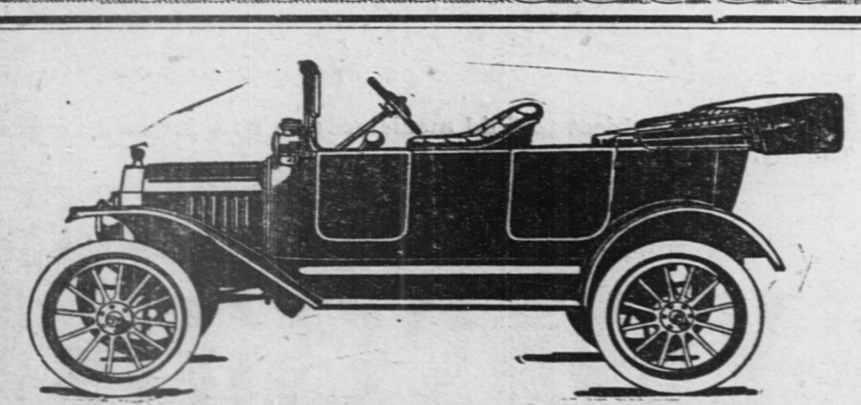

Fall Garments and Millinery

in the latest Models

at

B. E. BELUE & COMPANY'S

Corner Main and Collins

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Performance vs. Possibilities. Ford cars are giving satisfactory service to more than 900,000 owners representing all classes in business and professional life, on the farm and for pleasure it is "The Universal Car." Sturdy and reliable, easy to understand and drive, and economical to operate and maintain. Prices lower than ever.

Runabout $390; Touring Car $440; Town Car $640, f. o. b., Detroit. Why pay more?

On sale at

THE MADISON GARAGE

100 South 2nd St. Richmond, Ky

Wanted--Young Man

To represent a high-class Lexington business house in his home town and vicinity. No previous experience necessary, but must have the following qualifications: Live at home, be of pleasing personality, and no bad habits. Write us for further information, addressing

P. O. BOX 72, LEXINGTON, KY

BOURBON HOG CHOLERA REMEDY

Prevents and Cures

CHOLERA, WORMS, COUGH, THUMPS. It destroys disease germs, regulates the bowels, aids digestion and causes hogs to fatten quickly. Use it in the feed and drink and your hogs will never have cholera. Costs only 5c. a month for each hog. Don't wait until they are sick. Begin giving your hogs this medicine now and keep them free from worms and disease. At All Druggists.

BOURBON REMEDY COMPANY, Lexington, Ky.

SOLD IN RICHMOND BY HENRY L. PERLEY

Charming Suit of Chiffon Velvet

Designed by Franklin Simon & Co., New York.

THIS modish street costume is simply and smartly made of dark green chiffon velvet. Krimmer collar and cuffs brighten up this suit of rather somber hue, and a slight military effect is introduced by the high rolling collar and the ball buttons of velvet. Below the belt the coat forms a full peplum and the gathered flare of the skirt lends a very youthful, chic note. The suit makes up equally as charming in brown velvet with natural skunk trimming.

ANNA MAY.

HANDSOME PRESENTS FOR FEMININITY

Dainty Lingerie Always a Charming Gift.

LET milder be frivolous occasionally. Life is serious enough at best, and if the frigidities of femininity delight her soul let's provide her with them. So here is a suggestion: Buy a few yards of sheer batiste and some lace and ribbon and fashion her the bit of lingerie in which her soul delighteth. The picture of a pretty piece of combination lingerie is shown herewith.

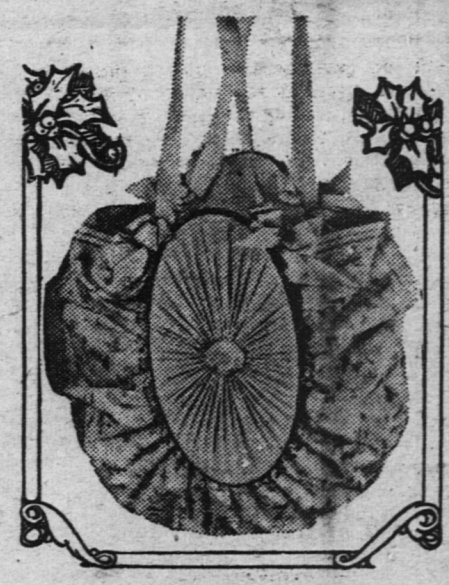

Traveling has become so common in the average American home that little conveniences for the trunk or grip are always welcome. A tray cover will help the girlish traveler to keep her waist fresh, and it is easily made. A strip of linen, denim or crash is cut the exact size of a trunk tray and bound all the way around with braid of a contrasting color. The center is embroidered with the initials of its owner in mercerized floss to match the braid, and pieces of tape are fastened near the corners of the cover in length sufficient to tie under the tray. Such a cover, of course, is not needed with the old fashioned trunk, whose single tray has a lid attached, but the new trunks are made up from innumerable trays without lids, and here the washable cover is most useful.

DAINTY COMBINATION.

A most welcome gift to the woman who goes out much in the winter is an opera bag. Crochet in very open stitches, rings in single stitch or squares made by crocheting four solid stitches to a chain of four stitches until a long piece has been made which, when folded and overseamed on the edges, forms a bag. Into this place a bright colored silk lining and then twist a thick cord of the silks used in the lining and crochet, with tassels at the ends. Crochet over eight brass rings in single stitch and then new rings to the bag, one inch below the top, and run the cords through these rings before the tassels have been added, one cord entirely around each side, to draw together.

BAG IN PASTEL SHADES.

Caps for children, purse covers, book covers, pillowshams and small table covers are now made of solid crochet.

A stock and cuffs of crocheted lace are also acceptable gifts, and mittens are by no means despised by either women or men.

A Novel Cozy.

The woman whose duty and pleasure it is to sit behind the tea table is always pleased with a pretty cozy. A parrot shaped one is a novelty. It is of velvet, the head being made of pale orange red, with a little white top knot. The body is of pale parrot green velvet, with a few lines to indicate feathers. Two thicknesses of wadding are added, then a thin lining of silk. The edges are bound with velvet, and a black head eye gives the finishing touch. Flat embroidery on the velvet will bring out the features, or they may be hand painted.

House For Rent.

My property on High street is for rent. A one story frame house of six rooms, good kitchen, electric lights, bath and water, large garden, barn, carriage house, coal and hen house. Can cook with gas or coal. Possession given at once.

Mrs. Florence Thorpe.

Best of Groceries at Lackey & Todd's.

RUN-DOWN WOMAN

Made Strong By Our Vinol

Fort Edward, N.Y.—"I was in a run-down, nervous and weak condition, so I could not do the housework for my little family of three. I had taken cod liver oil emulsions and other remedies without benefit. A friend told me about Vinol. I tried it and it soon built up my strength and made me a well woman so I now do all of my housework."—Mrs. ELMER GLIDDEN.

We guarantee Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, for all run-down, weak and debilitated conditions.

B. L. Middleton, Druggist, Richmond, Ky.

STOMACH SUFFERERS

MAYR'S Wonderful Remedy. One Dose Will Convince You.

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy is well known throughout the country. Many thousands of people have taken it for Stomach, Liver and Intestinal Ailments and report marvelous results and are highly praising it to others. Astonishing benefits sufferers have received even from one dose are heard everywhere and explain its tremendous sale to more than a million people. It rarely ever fails and those afflicted with Stomach, Liver and Intestinal Ailments, Indigestion, Gas in the Stomach and Intestines, Dizziness, Fainting Spells, Colic, Asthma, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., should by all means try this remedy. Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

Sold by Druggists Everywhere

A "Toy Party" Is Lots of Fun at Christmas

SOME thirty boys and girls in less than half that many homes were in a flutter of excitement just before Christmas. Little girls asked to go to see other little girls "just for a few minutes," and boys gathered in knots and with curious gestures, seemingly explanatory, discussed an apparently important subject.

Sometimes the boys and girls would meet, and one would hear "What are you going to be?" or "I'm going as an elephant."

Then some young wisecracker would say, "Really I do not think we ought to tell each other," and another wisecracker would respond: "Why not? We are going to wear our own faces, and as everybody will know everybody else, I think it is much better to tell each other, 'cause then there will not be so many of one kind."

Now, this was a very sage and philosophical conclusion, as it afterward proved, because at the toy party that occasioned all this animation there were scarcely two toys alike to be seen.

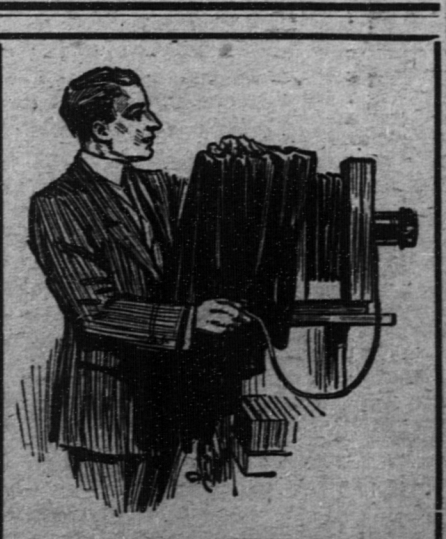

The invitations to the party had been sent by a young lady—a pet friend of every boy and girl asked—and she had requested each small guest to appear in the character of his or her favorite toy. She also suggested that, as girls might not care for animals or many toys, each of them come dressed like her own dearest doll and that the boys appear as bears, dogs, wolves, elephants, monkeys, goats, horses, lambs, donkeys, etc., or as firemen, policemen, soldiers or sailors, like those seen on toy engines, boats, etc., or else that mechanical figures like dancing Cambo, organ grinders, gymnasts, acrobats, etc., supply ideas for some of the costumes. She said she preferred to have them mostly animals, but would leave the matter to them and their mothers.

One thing, however, she must insist upon—every boy and girl must be in a costume representing a toy or a doll, and any boy or girl coming in any other costume would be sent home. Of course this seemed rather arbitrary, but the young hostess was simply endeavoring to make the party a perfect success, and to do this there must be no strangers among the toys. Mammas were very keen on the point and right heartily entered into the spirit of attiring their young hopefuls for this particular occasion.

It was a splendid success. Of course the guests did not simply sit or stand around and stare at one another. After some pretty games and a dance or two refreshments were served in the dining room. They consisted of sandwiches and cakes shaped like dolls and animals; ice cream that was molded to represent fruit, vegetables, frogs, some figures and flowers, and lemonade and other drinks.

Ashamed of Yourself, Eh?

Some people have been getting the Climax-Madisonian fifty-two times a year for one, two or three years and a few even longer than that, and haven't paid a cent for it. Now, Mr. Delinquent, are you not ashamed of yourself for imposing on us that way? We have a number of subscribers who pay in advance another large number who pay at the end of the year, and we have some, who from appearances, don't expect to pay at all. To which class do you belong? Come in and let's talk it over. We want our dollar.

YOUR XMAS PHOTOS

Call for your Photos when you wish, but have the slitting made NOW. This will give ample time for retouching, if necessary.

McGAUGHEY

TELEPHONE 52 MAIN ST.

DAMAGE VERDICT REVERSED

Court Holds Beneficiary of $13,250 Went Too Far.

Frankfort, Ky. (Special): A verdict of $13,250 given W. E. Henry, a brakeman, in the Bourbon circuit court against the Louisville & Nashville was reversed by the court of appeals in an opinion by Judge Turner. Henry was struck and injured by the cable attached to a plow used in dumping dirt cars. He failed to allege in his pleading that his senses of taste and smell were impaired by the injury, but was allowed to testify to that fact, and the court of appeals held that, as the impairment of these senses is a serious defect, the evidence of it might have enhanced the verdict, and for error in permitting this testimony to go to the jury the case was reversed with leave for Henry to amend his petition and make the evidence competent.

PANIC IN EASTERN COAL MINE

Thirty Men Caught in Boomer, W. Va. Shaft.

Charleston, W. Va. (Special): A blow-out shot in the mine of the Boomer Coal and Coke company, at Boomer, set fire to the mine and caused a panic among the miners, rapidly Italians, employed in one of the main tunnels.

All the men, except twenty-five to thirty, employed at the extreme rear end of the No. 2 mine, ran out through the smoke. It is said there is an exit near where the men are imprisoned. Several dead mules were found near the mouth of No. 2 tunnel.

An exploring party entered the drift. More than 225 men were at work when the explosion occurred.

Banker Secretly Married.

Covington, Ky. (Special): Ernest George, thirty-four years old, a banker of Boston, Mass., and Madeline Keyser, twenty-six, of Los Angeles, were secretly married here. The bridegroom is a Harvard graduate and a member of the Harvard Club of New York, and the Union Boat Club of Boston. He is prominent in banking circles.

Power Plant Expands.

Whitesburg, Ky. (Special): The Kentucky River Power company, building a large central power station at Glowmawr, immediately above Hazard, has increased its capital from $500,000 to $1,000,000. It is the purpose of the company to supply all the adjacent mining plants. Transmission lines are being built connecting with them.

Woman Loses Car Suit.

Louisville, Ky. (Special): A jury in Judge Gordon's court returned a verdict in favor of the Louisville Railway company in a case in which Louise B. Allen sought to recover $5,000 damages. The plaintiff alleged she fell through a defective step on a street car in alighting at Preston street and Broadway July 15 last.

Shooting Proves Fatal.

Whitesburg, Ky. (Special): Policeman Ed Boggs, one of the first men to fall in the riot in the Dunham section of the Jenkins coal fields, in which four others were wounded, died in the hospital. Policeman John Boggs of Hazard, has a chance to recover, according to physicians, but it is believed Jack Howard will die.

Boswell Goes Free.

Carrollton, Ky. (Special): James L. Boswell, former sheriff of Carroll county, who was on trial for three days on charges growing out of the collection of the county taxes, was acquitted by a jury in the Carroll circuit court. The jury deliberated but fifteen minutes before bringing in the verdict.

Personal

Phone 638 or 659 for all personal items.

Mr. J. R. Pates returned Tuesday from a short visit to Irvine.

Miss Mary Barrett Smith spent the past week with Mrs. George Phelps in the country.

Mr. J. M. Warren returned Sunday night from Pine Grove after spending the week-end with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Turner, of Lexington, were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Phelps.

Mrs. W. W. Watts and daughter, Miss Emma, have returned from a visit to relatives in Texas.

Editor E. C. Walton, of the Stanford Interior Journal, was an agreeable caller at our office Monday.

Mrs. Randolph Harris, of Stanford, visited her brother, Mr. Gilbert Grinstead, who continues quite ill.

Mrs. Dan Chenault is expected home this week from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Snyder, of Mt. Sterling.

Mr. Jess Lykins, of Portsmouth, O., was the guest Sunday and Monday of Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Williams.

Misses Daphne and Earnestine Bowman have returned from Lexington, where they visited Mrs. Harry McCoy.

Mrs. T. J. Taylor was in Berea the week end in the interest of the Woman's Industrial of the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Neale Bennett spent the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neale Bennett.

Col. Carlo B. Brittain will join his ship, "The Michigan" about January 6th. He will make an extensive cruise.

Col. W. P. Walton, of Lexington, has had a relapse and is seriously ill at his home. We trust that he may be speedily restored to health.

Miss Lucy Lee Walton, who has been confined to her bed for several days on the account of illness, is able to be out.—Lan-caster Record.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Todd entertained the teachers' training class of the Methodist Sunday School at their home on Second street, Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. M. Warren had as her guests the past week, Mrs. W. H. Marsee and little daughter, of Pineville, Mrs. Jessie Goodin, Mrs. J. L. and Geo. Corum, of Pineville and Corbin.

Mr. Rife Hoelgin, of the Hodgekin Grocery Co., Wholesale grocers, of Winchester, spent a few hours with Mr. Gilbert Grinstead who is ill at his home on the Summit. Mr. Grinstead is an employee of the above firm.

"Charming"

Is the way one of our customers described the New Fall Styles we are now showing. We would appreciate your opinion of them. We ask that you come in this week and look at the New Fashions in Footwear

E. V. Elder

Please Call and Inspect the Latest Fall Dry Goods

That Are Arriving Daily at

McKee's

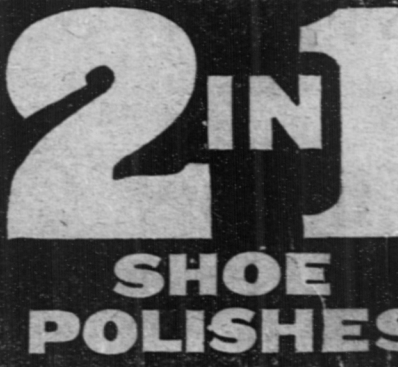

XMAS Shopping

Made Easy At

Yeager's

The Main Street Jeweler

He has everything that heart could wish in Jewelry—Watches, Rings, Brooches, Diamonds, Novelties—things to suit every member of the family from baby to grandma. Not only the right goods, but the right prices—within the reach of small pocketbooks. He can't name everything. You'll have to go and see. He will be glad to show you through.

Before the "Stroll" 2 in 1 Gives the best shine Does it easiest The F. F. Dyer Co., Ltd. Buffalo, N. Y. Hamilton, Can.

BLACK WHITE TAN ALL DEALERS 10¢

THIS OFFICE DOES THE BEST JOB PRINTING

WEAR DUTCHESS TROUSERS—they please

GOODRICH RUBBERS wear longest

CROSSETT SHOES will make walking easy

Sexton's

West Main

Be a Home Town Trader!

JOIN THE HOME TOWN PROCESSION. This is your home town. Your interest is here. The town's prosperity is your prosperity. Keep the money in town by spending it in town. In order to spend it wisely

Read the Home Paper

Alhambra
Where the Best People Go
Open at 1 P. M. on Saturdays
For Benefit of the Country People

TODAY—David Belasco presents LEONORA ULRICH, star of "Birds of Paradise," in a charming 5-part drama founded on one of the great kidnapping mysteries of fashionable England

"Kilmeny"

Francis X. Bushman and Ruth Stonehouse in

The Slim Princess

Lillian Drew, Bryant Washburn and others make this play one of the most pleasing films of the day

FRIDAY—Wm. Fox presents Dorothy Bernard and Thurlow Bergen in

"The Little Gypsy"

The Little Gypsy tells the love story of Romya blood, but gentle breeding, for a man whose being appeals to her even to the sacrifices of her highest hopes and ambitions. It is altogether a masterpiece of dramatic craftsmanship. 5 parts

MONDAY—Marguerite Clark in "The Seven Sisters." 5 Parts

DEC. 15—Carlyle Blackwell and Ina Clare in "The Puppet Crown."

FRIDAY, DEC. 17—Betty Nanson in "The Song of Hate."

SATURDAY, DEC. 18—Wm. Faversham, America's greatest actor, in "The Rights of Man."

Small Ads.

Two good typewriters for sale. Call at this office. 48-1f

Single Comb Black Orpington for sale. Phone 638. 45-1f

Buggy and pony cart for sale. Apply at this office. 45-1f

HUALING of all kinds. Sporlin's Livery Stable, 3rd & Irvine. Phone 108. 30-1f

Found

On the corner of North and Fifth st. a signet ring. Call and pay for this ad and get ring. 49-1f

Lost

Shriners' Clasp pin either at First Christian church or on the street between there and my home on Lancaster ave. Suitable reward for its return. Mrs. J. W. Zaring. 49-1f

Lost Pony

Strayed from my place at Waco about two weeks or more ago a mouse colored Shetland pony, two front teeth out. Call phone. Fred Witt. 49-2f

Man Wanted.

Man past 30 with horse and buggy to sell Stock Condition Powder in Madison county. Salary $70 per month. Address 9 Industrial Bldg., Indianapolis, Indiana. 48-2f

Turkeys For Sale.

Pure Bourbon Red Toms at $3.50 each. Hens $2.50. Your choice while they last. Mrs. W. R. Boggs, Red House, Ky. Phone 443. 45-2f

White Leghorns For Sale.

Pure bred White Leghorns hens for sale. 50 cents each. Mrs. Thos. H. Collins, Phone 182. 48-2f

Duroc Shoats For Sale.

I have for sale thoroughbred Duroc shoats, both sexes, five and six months old. Neville Witt. 46-1f

Rooms For Rent

Apply to Miss Nannie Ballard. Phone 475. 1f

For Rent.

House and lot with 75 acres of land. Apply to Mrs. Alice Paris, Kirksville, Ky. 49-1f

Wanted

To rent a 5-room cottage, barn, cow lot, etc., near town. Moderate rent and occupancy January 1st. Apply to Climax. 46-1f

For Rent.

Cottage on West Main street. Now occupied by Robt. Brandenburg. Possession January 1st. G. E. Lilly. 48-1f

For Rent.

The Miss Ruth Crowe residence on Oak street, six rooms, electric lights, gas, water and other modern improvements. Possession December 1st. Mrs. J. B. Stouffer. Phone 274. 47-1f

For Rent

20 acres land with good 7 or 8 room residence and necessary out buildings, 2 1/2 miles from Richmond, on the Red House pike. Land is in grass except about two acres. Possession January 1st. P. W. Powell. 49-1f

Dissolution Notice

The firm of Golden & Flora in the mercantile business in Richmond, Ky., was dissolved November 11, 1915. The business hereafter will be conducted by Robt. Golden at the old stand of Golden & Flora. Robt. Golden solicits the good will and patronage of the people of this and surrounding counties. 49-1f

Notice to Creditors

All persons having claims against the estate of Miss Emma Duerson, dec'd., are requested to present same to the undersigned on or before April 1, 1916, properly proven, otherwise the same will be barred. Mrs. Annie Duerson, Administratrix. 49-4f

Administrator's Notice

All persons having claims against the estate of Edgar Layton, dec'd., will please present them to me verified as required by law on or before February 15, 1916, or same will be barred. All parties indebted to the estate are notified to come and settle without further notice. W. T. Warner, Adm'r. 49-4f

Card of Thanks

We, The City Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, express our sincere thanks to the Board of Education for the use of the school building, the white citizens for their liberal contributions, the caterers, Mrs. Julia Gentry, for the most delicious meals served and the noble services rendered by the waitresses and ushers: Mrs. C. L. Hathaway and Miss Bender for the excellent music furnished and to all members and friends who attended or contributed in any for the benefit of our State Federation Meeting. Committee.

Our Clubbing Rates.

Elsewhere in this paper will be found the Climax-Madisonian clubbing rates. Hunt up the ad. and read it. It will interest you and save you some money. 38-1f

Business Men Meet.

The business men of this city met at the court house Friday night and discussed plans looking to the completion of their organization in an effort to get together for co-operation.

Court Day

'Not a very large crowd came to our capital Monday. About 1,500 cattle were on the market, which market was draggy. Mules were slow and sold low. Plugs changed hands at small prices. Mr. R. C. Mason sold Monday to Mr. Monte Fox, of Danville, a pair of four year old mules for $525.00.

Our offer of this paper four months for only 25c expires February Court day. It will not be repeated. 1f

The President's Message.

We give you the President's message in full in this issue. A typographical error in the same will be found where the tax on fabricated iron is placed at 50 cents per hundred. This should be 25 cents per hundred.

This Is The Week.

This is the week the Madison National Bank distributes its Christmas Savings Money. Nearly $10,000.00 will be given back to the members of the club. The checks will be mailed Thursday, December 9th. Let every member look out for his. If you do not get it report the same promptly.

The diamond rings at Whittington's would make any girl say "yes." 49-3f

Xmas Shop

For two days only, Friday and Saturday of this week, December 10 and 11, at the Jas. B. Stouffer store on Main street, a beautiful line of embroideries and other dainty and useful things to delight the hearts of Christmas shoppers. If you like pretty things now is your chance. Margaret Covington, Russell Stouffer.

Many people are remembering their absent relatives and friends with this paper for a Xmas gift. Why not you?

Dinner To Gov. McCreary.

Wednesday night at the Masonic Temple, about 100 gentlemen of this city will give a dinner to Governor McCreary. This will be a dinner of welcome to our distinguished citizen who has just finished his second term as Governor at Frankfort. The dinner will be served by the Happy Hour Tea Room which insures its success. These young ladies have demonstrated their culinary ability on many occasions.

HOGS for sale—Red Berkshire Swine Championship blood, winners at Ky. State Fair 1915, both sexes. Wm. K. Turley, phone 221-J, Richmond 41-1f.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wilson, of Newby, are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine boy on the 4th inst. They have named it Hume Wagers Wilson in honor of the brother of Mrs. Wilson. Mr. Hume Wagers who died recently. Mrs. Wilson is a daughter of Mr. Jonah Wagers of this city.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. James DeJarnette on the 30th of November and left with them a girl baby. They have given it the name of Ruth Evelyn. Miss Ruth is as pretty as a pink.

A happy Xmas is a giving Xmas. We have the gifts. Rice & Arnold.

DEATHS

Mr. J. Wade Walker, one of the most prominent and influential citizens of Garrard county, died at his home near Paint Lick, Tuesday, November 30, after a protracted illness due to a complication of diseases. Deceased was 67 years of age and was prominent both politically and socially, and had a national reputation as a fox hunter and breeder of fox hounds. He was prominently connected with one of the pioneer families of Garrard and Madison counties. Mr. Walker leaves a wife, who before her marriage was Miss Florence Moran, of Madison county; a son, Dr. Frank Walker, of Louisville; a daughter, Estill Walker, of Garrard county. Mr. Walker lived in this city for a number of years and was respected and liked by all who knew him.

CARD OF THANKS.

As a way of reaching friends this card is very old and conventional, not very social or convincing. I am thankful that we have so many friends as to preclude the possibility of seeing each. We want you to know, friends, that your gentle words and kind offers were not lost on us. You made our loss as light as it could be made. The remembrances you lavished on the dead are in our hearts a living memorial to friendship and to you. Though undemonstrative, we are deeply and lastingly appreciative of all that was said and done for us and ours, and we are convinced that neighborliness is not gone from earth. J. S. Pullen and Mother and Children

City Administration of Frankfort Pays Its Respects To Governor McCreary

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 4, 1915. Hon. James B. McCreary, Governor, City.

Dear Sir:—While the hours of your term as Chief Executive of this great State are drawing to a close the City Administration desires to extend its thanks to you for the many courtesies extended this municipality during the past four years.

It feels deeply indebted to you for your assistance and co-operation in making physical improvements, and the many recognitions extended its citizens. Never before has the State government and the city administration been more united in the common good, and we feel that this influence and harmony can only result in a greater and better city for the sent of State government.

It further extends its thanks for the many brilliant social functions that have been inaugurated, through your personal efforts during the entire term, the same having been enjoyed to the fullest extent by our citizens. It sincerely hopes that a Divine Providence may give you long life and that we may often welcome you to our city. With the greatest remembrance. By order of THE COMMON COUNCIL. (Signed) Joseph Rupert, Mayor.

How is Your Memory?

Don't forget to come to the Climax office and pay your subscription. Did you forget it last court day?

Millinery Sale.

All this season hats at cost. K. V. Schmidt, Second Street. 48-2f

School of Phonography

The Sloan Duployan system affords an easy and pleasant means of acquiring proficiency in shorthand. Those desiring stenographic equipment, please call at 316 W. Main st., or Phone 625. Session begins January 5, 1916. Classes afternoon or evening. Terms reasonable. 40-4f

In Memory

Of little Roberta Boggs, who died Nov. 19th, 1915.

Gather up the broken play things. Scattered on the nursery floor; Roberta is gone!—her little fingers. No'er will fondle with them any more.

Hide away the dolls, the dishes. Precious treasures! O! so dear! Lay aside the little dresses— In each fold a mother's tear.

God hath given—God hath taken. Though it rends the heart in twain, He but sends his frowns upon us. To give back his smiles again.

She hath gone to wait your coming. Smiling where the angels stand; Lingering there at heaven's gateway. That she first may clasp your hand. A Friend

Buy Xmas gifts while gift stores are complete. See us. 49-3f

An Interesting Jaunt

A never-to-be-forgotten experience at the Grand Canyon is the ride down Bright Angel trail to the Colorado river. The trail is seven miles down hill (seems longer coming back) and the zigzag descent is as steep in places as the roof of the Presbyterian church in Versailles, with a high wall on one side and a dawning precipice on the other. The mode of transportation is mule-back. The first into the corral have pick of the mules. I selected a docile looking gray gentleman mule, known as "Major." Albert Shouse rode a lady mule with the fanciful appellation, "Angel Child," and Harry B. Hanger, Jr., of Richmond, had "My Gosh" for his mount. My friend James Henton thought fourteen miles down hill and up on mule-back was too much recreation for one day. He first proposed walking the distance and then backed out entirely.

PHOTOGRAPHS

AS:

XMAS - GIFTS

Are Most Appropriate

This is the photographer's busiest season. You should have your sittings made early, as the more time the better work. Go to the

Schlegel Studio

and have your sittings made now. "Art is long and Time is fleeting"

L. E. Barnes

Proprietor

Schlegel Art Studio

NO ALUM

IN

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Avoid All Substitutes

∴ In Society ∴

A very interesting meeting of the Sherwood club was held on Wednesday afternoon, with Miss Mary Allen Deatherage. The subject of the programme was Godard and the following young ladies contributed to the success and pleasure of the meeting: Misses Henrietta Luxon, Lillian Smith, Eleanor Hagan, Elizabeth Turley, Johnnie Asbill and Josephine Telford.

speaks in glowing terms of the west, especially of the grand success of William R. Cunningham, Jr., who is the president of several banks.

Additional Personals on Page 4

City Council Meeting

The City Council met in regular session Thursday night, it being the last regular meeting of the old Council. Messrs. T. T. Covington, T. S. Todd, S. P. Deatherage, W. T. Vaughn and Emil Lohrlich were retired, Mr. Robert Golden was the only member retained. Mr. T. S. Todd was not a candidate for re-election. The following named gentlemen compose the new Council: Messrs. Robt. Golden, D. W. Kennedy, Joe Arnold, William O'Neill, W. W. Broadbush and W. L. Leeds, all of whom took the oath of office and will serve for a term of two years. When it came time to select the police to guard the peace of the city, the men selected at the caucus meeting, by the members of the new Council, the applicants selected for the positions were given quite a scare. When the vote was taken Messrs. Golden, Leeds and Arnold voted against the caucus nominees, and Messrs. O'Neill, Kennedy and Broadbush voted for the slate. The vote being a tie, it took the vote of the Mayor to decide the question. Mayor Rice voted for the caucus nominees, and Messrs. James Potts, W. B. Lackey and Jesse Kennedy were chosen, while Messrs. Claude Devore and William Maupin were retired. In the race for City Clerk considerable anxiety was felt by the friends of the contestants, Messrs. W. E. Blanton and Warren Kennedy. The race was hotly contested, but resulted in the election of Mr. Blanton, Councilman Blanton saved the day by voting for Mr. Blanton and against his own brother, Warren Kennedy. Mr. Blanton is the present clerk. Mr. T. C. O'Neill was retained as City Collector. Capt. James H. Allman was elected Street Commissioner, and Mr. Wash Derringer was retired. Mr. Wm. Maupin, who was retired from the police force, was given a blash in the Fire Department, and Mr. Squire Jones was retired. Mr. Joe Mitchell was retained in the Fire Department. Mr. John W. Crooke, the popular and efficient cashier of the Citizens Bank, was unanimously elected Treasurer. All of the officials elected gave service to the city before and each performed his duties well.

One of the elaborate and beautiful entertainments of the week was the Night Euchre Club which was entertained by Mrs. L. B. Weisenburgh on Friday at eight o'clock, in compliment to Mrs. Gates, of Pittsburgh. Eleven tables were used in the games and four handsome prizes were given. The ladies prize was won by Miss Jamie Caperton, the gentlemen's prize, by Mr. Neale Bennett, while the lone hand prize was awarded Mrs. T. H. Pickels, and the guest prize was presented to Mrs. Gates. The house was very lavishly decorated with chrysanthemums and roses and the evening ended with an elegant lunch of meats, salads and ices.

Mrs. J. Hale Dean was hostess of the Nullo club on Tuesday of last week and Miss Helen Bennett entertained yesterday afternoon. Both parties were well attended and much enjoyed.

Miss Elath Buchanan entertained the Young Ladies Bridge Club on Monday afternoon. The trophy was won by Miss Mary Allen Deatherage. Miss Daisy Moore Porter of Lexington was the guest of honor.

Little Miss Gladys Virginia Dean entertained with a lovely party on Tuesday at the Happy Hour Tea Room, the occasion being the celebration of her fifth birthday.

Mrs. Jennings Greenleaf was hostess of Married Ladies Bridge Club on Wednesday afternoon. The trophy was won by Mrs. M. C. Kellogg.

The Boonesborough Chapter D. A. R. held a most interesting meeting on Monday afternoon, with the regent, Mrs. A. R. Burnam. The program, one of the finest of the year, was given by Miss Jennie Parks whose subject was "The City of Louvaine," by Mrs. Geo. Phelps who gave a paper on "Aircrafts and Submarines" and Miss Emma DeJarnette who had the "Current Events."

The attendance was large and plans for the New Year's work was discussed.

Personal

Phone 638 or 659 for all personal items.

Mrs. Jake Herndon, of Berea, was in the city Monday and attended the meeting of the D. A. R.

Governor McCreary will reach Richmond today and will be tendered a banquet at Masonic Temple this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Colyer, Miss Mary Lee Colyer and Mrs. Mary Bates Miller visited in Frankfort Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Richards, hostess at Crab Orchard springs, has returned home after a few days' visit to Mr. and Mrs. Saml. A. Deatherage.

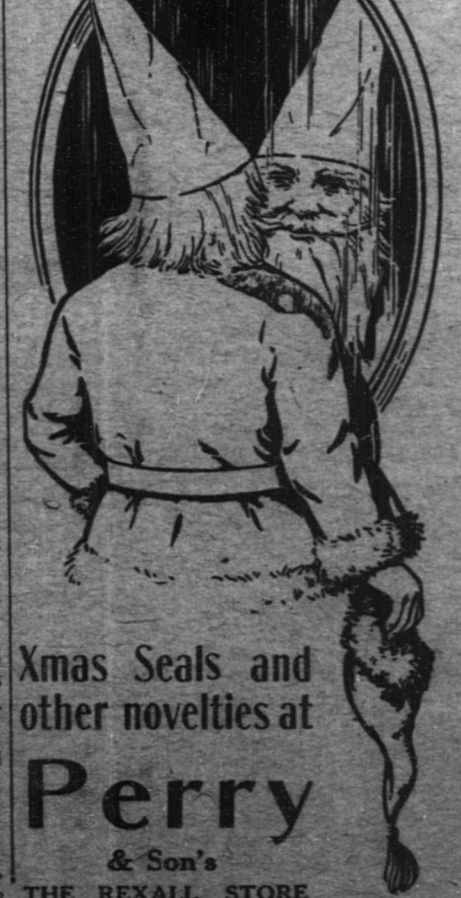

Miss Mary Eades, of Union City, is at home, after a month's visit to her uncle, at Evansville, Ind., and her grandmother, in Western Kentucky.

Miss Odessa Price, who is teaching in Union City Consolidated School and Miss Mary House, Messrs. Cale and Alex Turpin spent from Saturday until Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Griggs at Red House.

Mr. Harry L. Cunningham, of California is a guest of Col. and Mrs. John Cunningham and Mrs. Laura Estill Francis, at Rosedale, Bourbon county, Ky. He

Dennison's

TRADE MARK

Xmas Seals and other novelties at

Perry

& Son's

THE REXALL STORE

ANNOUNCEMENT

A CHRISTMAS OFFERING

YOU CAN HELP YOUR CHURCH

An Unusual Opportunity Tendered the Churches of

Madison and Adjoining Counties

Here is a plan through which you can secure a liberal contribution to the Christmas Fund or any fund of your Church

We Will Donate 5^{Per} Cent of Our Sales

For the Entire Month of December to the Churches

When making a purchase during this month you ask for your "CHURCH COUPON" and you will receive a coupon of the amount purchased, which in turn should be handed to some member of the church which you wish to benefit.

Pastors are requested to select the receiving member for their church and make the name known to us.

HERE IS A FAC-SIMILE OF THE COUPON YOU RECEIVE

CHRISTMAS : OFFERING

THIS TICKET ENTITLES

To 5 Per Cent of

$

W. D. Oldham & Company

Richmond's Greatest Store

W. D. Oldham & Co.

Richmond's Greatest Store

Appoint Some Member of Your Church to Receive Coupons and on Christmas Morning They Are Redeemable At Our Store

Elk's Memorial

The annual memorial service for the Elk's Lodge was held Sunday at the First Christian church. Hon. D. L. Pendleton, of Winchester, was the orator of the day. Many complimentary speeches have been heard about his address. Preceding the address, Miss Helen Young, of Mayeville, played most exquisitely a violin selection, Angel's Serenade. Miss Young is a charming young virtuoso who has before her a brilliant future. Mrs. Nippert, of Cincinnati, sang a solo "Shall I be forgotten." Mrs. Nippert was in fine voice and delighted the audience with her beautiful execution of the difficult notes.

The quartette by Mrs. Perry, Miss Mariam Nolan, Messrs. Bowman and Arnold, as well as the introductory chorus, was well received.

Mr. Elmer Deatherage was Master of Ceremonies, which position he ably filled.

Judge W. R. Shackelford could not be present much to the disappointment of his friends.

The following is a roster of the dead—forty-four in all: Thomas J. Scott, Jas. C. Lackey, A. Wilkes Smith, W. A. Thomas, Jas. W. Smith, W. C. Mullins, A. T. Fish, E. H. Wilson, David H. Myers, C. W. Tribble, Eugene F. Hume, E. Tutt Burnam, Arlie C. Wells, J. Farris McCord, Sam. F. Phelps, John W. Harris, David P. McCord, B. M. Lackey, Barney Kelley, J. C. Oldham, W. S. Hume, Ben L. Banks, R. W. Miller, Cyrus T. Fox, A. A. Curtis, Smith H. Oldham, Wm. B. Bright, Green C. Iao, J. Talbot Jackson, Hugh R. Tevis, Alf T. Douglas, Hume C. Wagers, D. W. Irvine, John F. Wagers, Jas. W. Caperton, J. Tevis Cobb, Thos. J. Douglas, R. Lee Gott, J. B. Douglas, John R. Greenleaf, Joe Chenault, James B. Stouffer, C. Fay Hanson, Wm. R. Powell

Honor Roll.

The honor roll for November for the Green Oak School is as follows: Andrew Lee Dykes, Mary Stone Embree, Iva Lee Dozier, Johnnie Marshall, Walter Bush Dykes, Jacob Embree and Rutledge Dozier, Nelson Waller, Teacher.

Be early in your Xmas shopping, and shop with Rice & Arnold. 49-3f

FOR FATHER

Gifts For Ladies

BRACELET WATCHES
SILVER VANITY CASES
HAT PINS VEIL PINS
LAVALLIERES JEWEL CASES
BOUQUET HOLDERS
SLIPPER BUCKLES
EMBROIDERY SETS
CHANGE PURSES

Lane's Gift Store

FOR MOTHER

FOR BROTHER

FOR SISTER

FOR FATHER

FOR MOTHER

FOR BROTHER

FOR SISTER

Go Every Night To The

Opera House</

Christmas Eve Sweetheart

By
Imogen Clark

Copyright by E. P. Dutton & Co.

They widened at the sight; then the smiles blossomed over, and her whole face broke up into glee. How could she feel strange or afraid in a place where—big, grumpy men though they were—such signs of expectancy were so openly displayed? She slipped from the protecting arm and ran close to the hearth, clapping her hands in delight.

"Oh, you're all ready for Santa Claus!" she cried. "My, how he'll have to work—there's such a 'hormous lot! But he'll fill 'em all." She threw out this balm in eager haste. "He's truly coming. He said so. If I'd gone home with him his house would have cracked to—to smithereens, so I stayed."

A deafening roar of laughter greeted her words and sent her, unerringly as a homing bird, back to her first friend, who still knelt on the floor. But, resting against him, her fears vanished almost instantly, and, as she glanced around with renewed confidence, her pretty silver hair thickened out to join their rougher merrier. The men pressed closer, one of them, the oldest, acting as spokesman. He was the man whose chimney had never seen any Christmas stockings hanging before it, the baby's sock being too tiny in that faraway year, but he seemed to know better than any of them how to ask just the right questions that would set free the little tongue. Betty climbed gladly up on his knee, and from her new perch poured forth in account of her wonderful adventures.

It was the fault of her companions, surely, and not her own that the things that were so real and true to her were like myths out of fairyland to them because they were so much older than the stream of time. Much of what she said was unintelligible to their dull, grumpy minds. But if each word had been of gold they could not have waited for it more eagerly, and when she stopped in her speech of that marvelous journey to laugh at some remembrance of Santa Claus' fooling they looked at one another, smiling in perfect sympathy. Perhaps, after all, they understood. Who shall say? There was no intention of escaping. Old Jerome hazarded some remark that helped on the tale, and the only person to move was a tall, gaunt man, who bent mysteriously over the fire and made something that smelled like—the most delicious thing in all the world. You have to ride for hours through the snow and feel the keen air in your face and be as hungry as a bear into the bargain to know just what that is. By some remarkable law of coincidence the delicious thing in the cooking came to an end at one and the same moment. Nothing could have been more timely. Betty's whole attention was quickly transferred to the tin plate which appeared before her, and her evident appreciation of the good things of life was so keen that she forgot on, who even in that short time had learned that their rougher ways frightened her, laughed gently among themselves. While she understood her, too! While she was busy over her supper, to the utter forgetting of her surroundings, several of the men went outside to see if they could find any traces of the recent Santa Claus. They returned, with all manner of bringing in the barrel and bags—sufficient proof that Terry, despite all convictions, wise head shakings and gloomy forebodings, had not failed them. He had kept his word. But the mystery deepened. Who was the child? Aside from her name, which was an unfamiliar one to them, they had not been able to learn anything definite about her. The excited little brain only seemed to live over the immediate past, in which Santa Claus had figured so importantly, the fact that she was his sweetheart apparently outweighing every other consideration.

"Terry O'Connor hasn't a chick nor child nor never he'd, old Jerome declared stoutly, as somebody ventured this solution of the difficulty, "nor there ain't any kin b'longin' to him. Guess I order to know—I've known him 'lmost these thirty years!"

"Losh, man," interrupted Sandy, "then he just 'reggled the bairn awa', makin' out he was Santa Claus! The enormity of it!"

"Oh, Terry must olluz be jokin'. It's his way," Jerome returned loftily. With his arm around the small form and the little golden head resting on his breast he was knowing one of the rare, happy moments of his life. There could be scant condemnation from him under the circumstances.

Betty, who had been alternately blinking at the fire and smiling contentedly to herself for some time, now interrupted any dispute that might have arisen concerning her absent friend by giving utterance to a series of baby yawns. The discussion came to a speedy close, the signs needing no interpretation to her hearers.

"Don't ye want to go to sleep, deary?" the old man asked.

She sighed her willingness without delay, though first her stocking must be hung up among the others that she proceeded to draw it off, but before that could be accomplished he was let into the secrets the buttons on your shoe always tell—what you are to be, what you will wear in what manner you will travel through life in carriage, car, wheelbarrow or wagon. When this "sure as sure" knowledge had been mastered he stripped off the stocking, and Shave, imperiously summoned, came close and put the wee packet, as she directed, way down in its very toe. Then he hung it in the center, where even the blindest deputy, supposing Santa Claus unable to get round, would never have passed it by. A rollicking little cheer went up at sight of the small red stocking.

Each Man Had to Wait His Turn to Stow Away His Gift.

Each man had to wait his turn to stow away his gift. The young fellow who called Kid—he was something of a dandy—added a ring of massive proportions. It wasn't gold, but he pretended it was and liked to wear it. When he went to dance to the old girls think he was a fine up and coming man. And Jerome—poor old Jerome!

It was a very meager kit that he rummaged through again and again—when a man has to take care of himself he doesn't put in any useless traps, any what you'd call gewgaws, not when he is old, that is. So he could find nothing there, and a search through his pockets revealed the same depressing poverty. He had nothing, nothing but a certain battered snuff-box that had been his companion for so many years that it would be easier to imagine him without his head than without the box. He was evidently of that opinion for he stared it down in his pocket with an air of great finality. But nevertheless, polished to an almost glittering show of youth and filled with coins, it very fitly crowned the motley collection.

It had taken some time to play Santa Claus, for each man had to wait his turn to stow away his gift. There were no deputies allowed on this occasion, and the bungling fingers couldn't work very quickly. Terry quickly didn't try to, if the truth were known. But all too soon the joyful task came to an end, and the men stood back, radiant eyed, looking at those bulging little red stockings as if one that he himself had just won. They were the most beautiful things in the world, the Christmas tide—with its strand of inheritance, its strand of opportunity, its strand of affection—bound them very closely to one another. In that moment old wrongs and heartburnings, bitterness and rivalries slipped away, and they knew the blessedness of peace and good will. Happy! There was just one thing to make them happier—the merry voice of a little child greeting the misty light of the Christmas dawn.

TO BE CONTINUED

Farmers, don't forget the big meet at Lexington, January 4-7. Many things of value will be discussed. Able speakers and valuable subjects. Reduced rates on all railroad.

WEAK, SORE LUNGS
Restored To Health By Vinol

Camden, N. J.—"I had a deep seated cough, was run-down, and my lungs were weak and sore. I had tried everything suggested without help. One evening I read about Vinol and decided to try it. Soon I noticed an improvement. I kept on taking it and today I am a well man. The soreness is all gone from my lungs. I do not have any cough and have gained fifteen pounds."

—FRANK HILLMAN.

We guarantee Vinol for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis and for all weak, run-down conditions.

B. L. Middleton, Druggist, Richmond, Ky.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S MESSAGE

National Preparedness Main Theme of Head of Nation, Submits Definite Plan to Increase Present Standing Force of Regulars and For Four Hundred Thousand Citizen Soldiers Raised in Increments of One Hundred and Thirty-three Thousand.

FOLLOWING is the message of President Wilson delivered at a joint session of the senate and house at the beginning of the Sixty-fourth congress:

Gentlemen of the Congress—Since I last had the privilege of addressing you on the state of the Union the war of nations on the other side of the sea, which had then only begun to disclose its portentous proportions, has extended its threatening and sinister scope until it has swept within its flame some portion of every quarter of the globe, not excepting our own hemisphere, has altered the whole face of international affairs, and now presents a prospect of reorganization and reconstruction such as statesmen and peoples have never been called upon to attempt before.

We have stood apart, studiously neutral. It was our manifest duty to do so. Not only did we have no part or interest in the policies which seem to have brought the conflict on; it was necessary, if an universal catastrophe was to be averted, that a limit should be set to the sweep of destructive war and that some part of the great family of nations should keep the processes of peace alive, if only to prevent collective economic ruin and the breakdown throughout the world of the industries by which its populations are fed and sustained. It was manifestly the duty of the self-governed nations of the world to redress, if possible, the balance of economic and political confusion in the other, if they could do nothing more. In the day of readjustment and recuperation we earnestly hope and believe that they can be of infinite service.

In this neutrality, to which they were bidden not only by their separate life and their habitual detachment from the politics of Europe, but by their perception of international duty, the states of America have become conscious of a new and more vital community of interest and moral partnership in affairs, more clearly conscious of the many common sympathies and interests and duties which bind them stand together.

There was a time in the early days of our own great nation and of the republics fighting their way to independence in Central and South America when the government of the United States looked upon itself as in some sort the guardian of the republics to the south of her as against any encroachments or efforts at political control from the other side of the water; but it was not to that part even without invitation from the republics that we can claim that the task was undertaken with a true and disinterested enthusiasm for the freedom of the Americas and the unmolested rule of government of her independent states. But it was to that part even without invitation from the republics that we can claim that the task was undertaken with a true and disinterested enthusiasm for the freedom of the Americas and the unmolested rule of government of her independent states.

We have been put to the test in the case of Mexico, and we have stood to test. Whether we have benefited Mexico by the course we have pursued remains to be seen. Her fortunes are in her own hands. But we have at least proved that we will not take advantage of her in her hour of need. Every American who has drunk at the true fountain of principle and tradition must subscribe without reservation to the high doctrine of the Virginia bill of rights, which in the great days of our government was set up as everywhere among us as the creed of free men. That doctrine is, "That government is or ought to be instituted for the common benefit, protection and security of the people, native or foreign; that the various modes and forms of government, that is the best which is capable of producing the greatest degree of happiness and safety and is most effectually secured against the danger of abuse, shall be found when any government shall be found inadequate or contrary to these purposes a majority of the community, bath an indubitable, inalienable and indefeasible right to reform, alter or abolish it in such manner as they may judge most conducive to the public weal." We have unhesitatingly applied that heroic principle to the case of Mexico and now hopefully await the rebirth of the troubled republic, which had so much of which to purge itself and so little sympathy from any outside quarter in the radical but necessary process. We will aid and befriend Mexico, but we will not coerce her, and our course with regard to her ought to be sufficient proof to all Americans that we seek no political suzerainty or selfish control.

Photo by American Press Association. President Wilson Reading Message to Congress.

PAN-AMERICANISM HAS NONE OF EMPIRE'S SPIRIT.

Economic Adjustments Inevitable Within the Next Generation.

The moral is that the states of America are not hostile rivals, but co-operating friends, and that their growing sense of community of interest, alike in matters political and in matters economic, is likely to give them a new significance as factors in international affairs and in the political history of the world. It presents them as in a very deep and true sense a unit in world affairs, spiritual partners, which must be fitted to play the great role in the world, and particularly in this hemisphere, for which they are qualified by principle and by chastened ambition to play.

It is with these ideals in mind that the plans of the department of war for more adequate national defense were conceived which will be laid before you, and which I urge you to sanction and put into effect as soon as they can be properly scrutinized and discussed. They seem to me the essential first steps, and they seem to me for the present sufficient.

They contemplate an increase of the standing force of the regular army from its present strength of 5,023 officers and 102,985 enlisted men of all services to a strength of 7,139 officers and 134,707 enlisted men, or 141,846 in all, all services, rank and file, by the addition of fifty-two companies of coast artillery, fifty-two companies of engineers, ten regiments of infantry, four regiments of field artillery and four aerodromes, besides 750 officers required for a great variety of extra services, especially the all important duty of training the citizen force of which I shall presently speak, 792 non-commissioned officers for service in drill, recruiting and the like and the necessary quota of enlisted men for the quartermaster corps, the hospital corps, the ordnance department and other similar auxiliary services. These are the additions necessary to render the army adequate for its present duties, duties which it has to perform not only upon our own continent, coast and borders and at our interior army posts, but also in the Philippines, in the Hawaiian Islands, at the Isthmus and in Porto Rico.

By way of making the country ready to assert some part of its real power promptly and upon a larger scale should occasion arise the plan also contemplates supplementing the army by a force of 400,000 disciplined citizens, raised in increments of 133,000 a year throughout a period of three years. This is a proposal which I do not permit to take it within your view and permit the full significance of it to command your thought I cannot find the right light in which to set forth the particular matter that lies at the very front of my whole thought as I lay it before you today. I mean national defense.

No one who really comprehends the spirit of the great people for whom we are appointed to speak can fall to perceive that their passion is for peace, their genius best displayed in the practice of the arts of peace. Great democracies are not belligerent. They do not seek or desire war. Their thought is for the development and the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance of our own lives upon our own principles of right and liberty, we resent, from whatever quarter it may come, the aggression upon our security in prosecuting our self-chosen lines of national development. We do more than that. We demand it also for others. We do not confine our enthusiasm for individual liberty and free development to the maintenance of the peace of the world, but we extend it to the maintenance of the peace of the world, and the unencumbered thought that quickens the Conquest and dominion are not in our reckoning or agreeable to our principles. But just because we demand peace, and because we demand the maintenance

Extra Special Prices

DURING THE REMAINDER OF DECEMBER WE WILL OFFER OUR ENTIRE STOCKS OF

Ladies' Suits, Coats and Skirts; Misses' and Children's Coats; Men's and Boy's Suits and Overcoats at Prices Far Below Their Real Value

We are much too heavily stocked in these departments and desire to clean them up—if prices will do the job we will be elected sure. You will find we mean what we say. We also have complete stocks in all other lines and our prices on everything are as low for the quality as can be had any where

Don't Overlook Our Shoe Department

No better shoes can be had in your city than we have to offer. Try saving a few pennies by paying us a visit
Very respectfully

Hamilton Bros

The Careful man does not leave his widow helpless—he leaves his estate in our hands.

TRUST YOUR BUSINESS AFFAIRS TO OUR TRUST COMPANY. WE ARE A PERMANENT ORGANIZATION, BACKED BY KNOWN MEN OF HIGH CHARACTER AND KNOWN RESPONSIBILITY. WE WILL HANDLE YOUR ESTATE IN A BUSINESS-LIKE WAY AND ACCOUNT FOR EVERY PENNY. AN INDIVIDUAL WHOM YOU MAY APPOINT AS YOUR EXECUTOR MAY DIE OR MISMANAGE YOUR ESTATE. BE A CAREFUL MAN. PROTECT YOUR WIFE AND FAMILY. MAKE YOUR WILL NOW. MAKE OUR TRUST COMPANY YOUR EXECUTORS.

STATE BANK & TRUST COMPANY

RICHMOND, KENTUCKY

THE CLIMAX-MADISONIAN

PUBLISHED EACH WEDNESDAY BY

THE CLIMAX PRINTING COMPANY

INCORPORATED

Entered at the Postoffice at Richmond, Ky., as second-class mail matter under an Act of Congress of 1875

GRANT E. LILLY EDITOR AND MANAGER PHONE 69
ANNA D. LILLY SOCIAL EDITOR PHONE 638

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS

Copy for change of advertisement must be in this office before noon Friday to insure change in the current issue. If received after that time it will be at our option. This paper is printed in two sections which makes the above rule imperative necessary. Our advertising space and Job Work is the same price to everybody. We play no favorites. (All advertisements to be carried till further orders, marked "if" will be charged for until ordered out.)

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE

ONE YEAR IN ADVANCE	$1.00
SIX MONTHS	.50
THREE MONTHS	.25
ONE MONTH	.15

RICHMOND, KY., WEDNESDAY, DEC. 8, 1915.

THE EDITOR'S PRAYER

An editor went to church the other day and was called on to lead in prayer, when he responded as follows: "Almighty, the kind Father, who doth from thy throne look down on the government of delinquent subscribers, we most humbly beseech thee to draw near unto them and whisper a few things into their ears that the statutes forbid us to print. Thou knowest our wants, but the subscribers know them not and seldom, if ever, stop to inquire. Let it be known to them that there are big patches on the homestead of our pants, and that there is an aching void in the front of our back—that we hunger and thirst and they ask us not to come and sup with them. Thou knowest, Lord, that our ink and print paper costs money, but the subscriber knoweth it not, and careth a great deal less. Thou knowest that we are cold and the subscriber bringeth not the wood he promised, and we are shivering and shaking while he roseth his shins before the red hot fires of his mother. Tell him all these things: Lord and it he faileth and bringeth no succor, banish him to lower regions to dwell among the Republicans, the Democrats, the Popocrats and Calumny howlers, and thine shall be the praise throughout our newspaper career."—Ex.

THINK A LITTLE

In looking over our exchange lists, we notice some of the papers are as small as five columns, containing only 260 inches and only four pages. This lead us to think some. For this paper they get $100 per year. It contains 260 inches. Our paper contains 1336 inches, nearly six times as much news and reading matter. Yet we get only one dollar. Some people grumble at this. Stop grumbling and think a little.

TWO YEARS LATER

Oh! for a safety pin that's safe! It would make my all joy. Oh for a food that will not give The cramps to my little boy! Oh for the boon once more of a night Of solid, square repose! 'Tis this only that I want Oh! give me an old-time dose.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE

The Women of the country will have the distinction of having the first consideration by Congress. The bill to amend the Constitution giving them suffrage, will be the first bill introduced. President Wilson thinks suffrage for women is a matter for the States to determine for themselves. We think otherwise. Women are as much entitled to vote as men. Nor do we consider this from the point of sentiment. Nor do we place it on a point of morality. We place it on a matter of right. They are citizens and as such are amenable to all the laws. They are entitled to a voice in saying what the laws shall be.

$27,000,000

The United States secret service men charge that $27,000,000 has been placed in this country by Germany to affect Neutrality. This at bargain counter prices will buy a lot. But we should tell Germany that since she started the scrap, things have "ris" in this country.

NATIONAL PAY UP-WEEK

A "pay up" week, February 21st-26, has been appointed and will be nationwide. What troubles us is, where will we get the dough? We give an account of it on another page.

President Wilson asked Germany to withdraw Capt. Boy-Ed and Von-Papin, Military attaches of the German Government in this country. They are persona non grata.

Rigid investigations are now in progress as to the activities of Germany in this country. Some sensational developments are expected.

His First Court

Judge Baxter held his first county court Monday and presided with grace and ease. The following wills were probated.

Sam G. Hanson, offered and passed Jno. L. Pond, probated. M. T. Warner was appointed as the administrator of Edgar Layton. T. G. Glossip, of Mary County. Mrs. Annie Dueron, of Miss Emma Dueron. A. W. Earle, of Annie Maupin, and Elihu Biggerstaff of Jas. Dunham. David Buford was appointed as guardian of Miss Helen Buford.

INAUGURATED

Gov. Stanley was inaugurated at Frankfort Tuesday with imposing ceremonies.

Gov. Stanley authorized the statement that he would not allow intoxicating beverages to be used in the Mansion during his incumbency.

This is an excellent beginning and will win him many friends.

Don't forget our Embossed and Engraved Xmas cards and letters.

Entertains For Her Guest

Mrs. Robinson, of Atlanta, Ga., entertained with a lovely 6 o'clock dinner for Miss Jessie A. Rice, who is visiting her sister, Miss Edie B. Rice. Covers were laid for six and an elegant three course dinner was served, after which the party attended the movies.

Keep your money in circulation by handing us that dollar you owe us.

Hunting the Supper

In this game the table is set and the guests are asked to sit down to it, though not a sign of anything to eat is visible. Then the hostess places the end of a cord in the hand of each guest, who is told to go and hunt for his supper. The cord is wound up until the other end is reached, when a dish of something edible is revealed. It may be fruit, sandwiches, cake, candy or what not.

All the dishes are brought to the table, when the supper begins. The winding and unwinding of the twisted cord make lots of fun.

Fire Destroys Gilkey Residence. Bardstown, Ky. (Special): The residence of County Clerk Morgan Gilkey, two miles south of Bardstown, was destroyed by a fire that is supposed to have originated from a defective flue. The loss is estimated at $3,000, partly covered by insurance. Most of the household effects were saved.

Three Killed, Two Injured in Mine. Wheeling, W. Va. (Special): Three men were killed and two injured in a collision of cars in the mine of the Glenn Run company at Rush Run, O., ten miles north of here. The collision resulted in a heavy fall of slate, which killed the victims. The bodies have not been recovered. All the dead were foreigners.

Operate For Trachoma. Henderson, Ky. (Special): Thirteen school pupils affected with trachoma were operated upon at the city hospital by local physicians. There are eighty-one cases among the school children in the city, and a large majority of them will undergo operations.

Thieves Work During Fire. West Point, Ky. (Special): While the dairy barn of Hugh DeWitt was burning and all the neighbors had flocked to the fire, thieves stole two $20 mules from the barn of Dr. J. D. Prewitt, where sixty head were being fed by Mantel and Brandenburg.

"Punch Boards" Barred. Newport, Ky. (Special): "Punch boards" used in saloons and cigar stores as games of chance were ordered by the police to be removed and destroyed by Chief of Police Ebert.

Judge Riddell Commended. Our friend and school mate, Judge Riddell, was highly commended by the Bar of Breathitt county as appears from the resolutions below. Judge Riddell and your editor were admitted to the bar at the same time. It affords us pleasure to know that he has received such merited honors.

Breathitt County Bar Ass'n. We, the undersigned, members of your committee on resolutions, appointed on yesterday, beg leave to submit the following report:

1. That it is the unanimous opinion of all the members of this association that the Hon. Hugh Riddell, during his incumbency as Circuit Judge of this county, presided with ability, dignity, fairness and justice to all, and that we deeply regret his retirement from the bench.

2. Resolved, That all the litigants in his court, whether rich or poor, black or white, and without regard to political affiliation, received at his hands, presiding as Judge of the Breathitt Circuit Court the same courteous, fair and just treatment, and in his own inimitable, kindly way, he had deeply crept into the hearts of all the people by his just and impartial rulings and his kindly bearing, patient with all and painstaking with every proposition presented to him.

3. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the order book of the Breathitt Circuit Court, a copy published in the Jackson Times and other papers in this judicial district are requested to copy, and that the original of these resolutions be forwarded to Hon. Hugh Riddell, at Irvine, Ky.

G. W. Pleasant, A. H. Patton, W. H. Blanton, A. F. Byrd, W. W. McGuire.

STOCK AND FARM

We print more Farm News than any paper in Eastern Kentucky. Please give us your items.

News that an additional internal revenue tax of $1 a barrel on beer is probable, has elicited expressions of vigorous protest from Louisville brewers, who say the retailers and consumers will have to pay the additional expense. J. J. Austin, the extensive produce producer dealer of this city, is now handling an avalanche of produce. Last week he took to Cincinnati and Covington in his two large motor trucks, 550 turkeys, 1,500 dozen eggs, 300 ducks and geese, 1,600 pounds of butter, 2,200 rabbits, besides other produce such as hides, furs, etc.—Palmouth Outlook.

The four Rankin brothers, of Lincoln county, sold 250 1,300 pound cattle this week. Jay Well, of Lexington, bought 100 at seven and one-half cents per pound, and Monte Fox got the rest at $7.12 1/2 per hundred pounds. It was the biggest cattle sale consummated in this section for some time.

Jay Well, of Lexington, this morning received twenty three head of cattle he recently purchased from Mr. J. R. Knox. Forty-two purchased from Mr. F. T. Logan and thirty-four purchased from Mr. Thomas Metcalf.—Danville Advocate.

The Barley Tobacco Warehouses were formerly opened at Lexington last Wednesday, and 100,000 pounds of the weed was sold on the breaks at prices ranging from $3 to $27.50 a hundred, or an average of $9.05.

A. H. Bastin, of Lancaster, sold W. B. Burton, a pair of 14-year-old work mules, fat and in good condition, for $200. W. B. Burton, of Lancaster, bought a pair of four-year-old mules, one a horse and the other a mare from Rev. J. G. Livingston, of the East End, for $229. J. R. Knox, of Boyle county, sold to the Wells, of Lexington, last week a carload of fat beefs at a price close to eight cents a pound. The beefs were corn fed and in prime condition and averaged up close to 1,450 pounds. W. B. Burton, of Lancaster, was in Stanford Monday afternoon returning from Middleburg and Hustonville, where he bought 17 head of work mules, paying from $100 to $140 for them. He received word Monday, however, that the government agent has quit inspecting cattle at Nashville, so he will not buy again for sometime.—Stanford Interior Journal.

Last Saturday was mule day in Columbus, a large crowd being in town, and many mules were on the market. A representative for Harry Lazarus was here and he bought 28 head ranging in price from $75 to $160. Sam Burdett bought 18 at prices from $133 to $185. Frank Toliver purchased a pair for $225.—Adair County News.

A. L. Ferguson, of Georgetown, bought the 188 acre Ferguson farm in Bourbon county at $114 per acre.

Mrs. F. M. Atkinson, of Paintsville, bought the John Schult farm of 82 acres in Fleming county for $12,600.

The A. W. Hudson Ranch in Crosby county, Texas, consists of 62,000 acres, and is stocked with 35,000 well bred cattle. It was recently purchased by Frank Horn, Iona, Texas, for $635,000 cash.

It is estimated that 800,000 pounds of turkeys have been shipped from Central Kentucky to the New England States, for the Thanksgiving trade. The farmers received an average of 17 cents a pound for them.

At Winchester, Jack Lisle sold 300 acres of land on the Paris pike, to Clay Owens, of Clark county, at $200 per acre. Possession will be given on March 1, 1916.

In Clark County, Thos. Hiale sold his farm of 65 acres to Thos. Adams at $100 per acre. The Henry Hall farm of 41 acres, near Wade's Mills, was sold to Clayton Hiale, at $5.00.

Neckwear, Hosiery and Combination Sets in holiday boxes at 49-53. Riegs & A.oid.

Our Embossed and Engraved Stationery is taking with all those who know "What is What" and "Who is Who."

New County Engineer

Mr. J. S. Boggs was appointed as the County Engineer of this county to succeed Mr. J. G. Baxter who resigned to accept the office of County Judge. Mr. Boggs is well qualified for the office and the county is to be congratulated that it can secure the services of so good a man.

A Climax Ad Did It

Last week we inserted a three line advertisement in the Climax-Madisonian in a very inconspicuous place, so obscure in fact that we were almost ashamed for our customer to see it and to have to pay for it. Within a few days after the paper was out not less than six persons called up the advertiser saying they had read it in our paper and a deal was at once effected. An object lesson—Moral—If you want to advertise in the Climax-Madisonian, the paper with the big circulation.

BATH TOWELS DE LUXE.

An Up to Date Christmas Present For the Home-Maker.

Nothing could be more acceptable in most homes than a set of bath towels, wash cloths and bath mat embroidered in the same color as the bathroom filling. The best quality of Turkish towel is used, and cross stitch or old English initials may be substituted for those of the illustration if preferred. The wreath design may be extended to huck towels also. But if all towels are to match a simpler initial will prove labor saving, while being just as smart.

Bureau scarfs and pincushions are always acceptable gifts. Very dainty and inexpensive scarfs may be made of pretty flowered muslin or lawn. A white or pale pink ground, on which are scattered little red roses or blue forget-me-nots or any dainty little flower can be used. A design of butterflies on a white ground or violets or even dainty green leaves would be pretty also.

The scarf for the bureau top is made perfectly plain and edged with lace. A white feather stitch gives a pretty finish to the edge. The ends of the scarf may hang down a little on either side, or the scarf may fit the bureau top exactly.

The pincushion cover is made of the same material and edged with lace. It is decorated at the corners with little ribbon bows the shade of the flower in the design. A piece of saten or silk of solid color may be put under the muslin if desired.

Another household gift which may find acceptance is a cover for the unsightly telephone book. This should be of some appropriate color for the room or den where it is to be hung. It should be lined with some plain color. The edges are bound with old gold braid. Underneath is a heavy board foundation to hold the telephone book.

FOR THE BOUDOIR.

Hand Knitting Makes Useful Christmas Gifts.

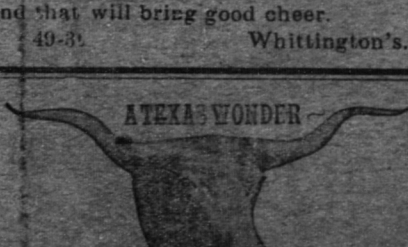

At no time within fifty years has hand knitting been more in vogue than in the present year. Everywhere one went—in the railway trains and stations, in the street cars, even it is true more in the theaters between acts—the busy click of the knitting needles has been in evidence. The slippers shown here are very easy of accomplishment and made of silk would be a handsome present.

Meet the Xmas spirit and give something substantial, useful, ornamental, and that will bring good cheer.

49-53. Whittington's.

THE Texas Wonder cures kidney and bladder troubles, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, and all other ailments in both men and women. It is a powerful purifier of the blood and a general tonic. It is a cure for all ailments of the urinary system. It is a cure for all ailments of the blood. It is a cure for all ailments of the nerves. It is a cure for all ailments of the muscles. It is a cure for all ailments of the skin. It is a cure for all ailments of the eyes. It is a cure for all ailments of the ears. It is a cure for all ailments of the nose. It is a cure for all ailments of the throat. It is a cure for all ailments of the lungs. It is a cure for all ailments of the heart. It is a cure for all ailments of the stomach. It is a cure for all ailments of the intestines. It is a cure for all ailments of the liver. It is a cure for all ailments of the spleen. It is a cure for all ailments of the pancreas. It is a cure for all ailments of the gallbladder. It is a cure for all ailments of the bladder. It is a cure for all ailments of the prostate. It is a cure for all ailments of the testicles. It is a cure for all ailments of the ovaries. It is a cure for all ailments of the uterus. It is a cure for all ailments of the vagina. It is a cure for all ailments of the cervix. It is a cure for all ailments of the uterus. It is a cure for all ailments of the vagina. It is a cure for all ailments of the cervix.

Church Notes

BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Baptist church will hold its Annual Bazaar at the Masonic Building December 11.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Attendance at the Bible School 433, offering $24 72, 188 in Mr. Turley's class. The members of the class are doing faithful service.

Next Sunday Prof. Charles T. Paul, of the College of Missions, Indianapolis, Ind., will speak morning and evening. This is the annual observance of the work of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions. Mr. Paul is a great scholar, a world-traveler, an authority on missions and mission fields, is a rare Christian spirit. Everybody will be delighted with his addresses. We hope to see the house crowded at both services.

Subject for the Wednesday evening prayer meeting, "How to make our Church work more effective."

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

"The Woman's Industrial" under the auspices of the Aid Society, had its initial meeting Monday afternoon in the Second Presbyterian church. Clothing previously donated was mended by fourteen needy women who seem glad to sew for three hours and see the garments which they then selected. This "Industrial" will meet every Monday afternoon from 1 to 4 o'clock, and a committee of women from the Aid Society will be in charge. All donations of clothing, shoes, etc., will be gladly received at the church any time during the day.

Dr. Telford has been appointed by Governor McCreary as a delegate to represent our State at the "Conference on Church and Country Life" to be held in Columbus, Ohio, December 8-10.

The Sunday school will have its Xmas entertainment December 24 in the church. Service will be "White Gifts for the King."

"The Woman's Missionary Society" will meet with Mrs. James Burnam, Friday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

M. S. CHURCH, SOUTH.

Sunday, December 12, 1915, the pastor will preach at 10:45 a. m. and 7 p. m. At 7 p. m. he will preach a special sermon on "The Peace of the City." He will speak of some things that mar the peace of our city and of some other things that "Make for Our Peace." Surely we all ought to know and consider these things. Come out and let us think and reason together.

Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. We have a live Superintendent, live teachers and a live school. A fine place to study the word of God. Come.

M. S. Clark, Pastor.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

December 12th, subject for Sunday, "God the Preserver of Man."

Envelope Gifts.

The simplest way for a girl to remember her out of town girl friends at Christmas time is with an envelope gift. Some small useful token which can be sent through the mail has quite as much significance as a bulky or elaborate present which requires a large postage or express fee to carry it to its destination. And there is no end of pretty gifts which can be made to fit easily into an envelope of ordinary size. Of course the long "business" envelope may be used. This comes in stout manila paper as well as in the more fragile white paper.

Of these gifts none is received with more welcome by the average girl than a silk scarf. The season's offerings in these filmy affairs show wondrously beautiful colorings.

Then there are many lovely stocks which are soft enough to go in an envelope.

Correspondence

PAINT LICK.

Billy Wilcox, in assisting to extinguish a fire at the residence of Mrs. Vena McWhorter, fell into an open cellar and hurt himself very badly, but we hope for a speedy recovery. Our old and esteemed citizen, Mr. W. O. Fish, is quite sick at this writing. Harry Francis returned from his annual mountain bird hunt and had about one hundred birds for his share. Speith & McGraw will soon open a tobacco market in the warehouse of T. S. Borman. This will be convenient for the farmers and a saving of warehouse fees. Elder Methodist church held Quarterly Conference at Weibula last Sunday.

Tom Green died at the residence of Melford Lee at Lowell last Friday and was buried at Richmond Saturday.

Miss Lula McWhorter spent Thanksgiving in Louisville. Misses Minnie Johnson and Elizabeth Bryant spent Thanksgiving with home folks. Prof. G. L. Waterbury was at Paris for the week and... Corn husking, hog killing and tobacco stripping is the order of the day for the busy farmers. Mrs. Anne Richmond of Kingston, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Ladford. Dr. B. Ramsey, one of our oldest el-

TURKEYS

We are receiving
Turkeys for the Xmas market
Manchester Turkey Co.
Phone 3

zens, and wife left for Chattanooga, Tenn., to spend the winter.... The little son of R. G. Woods, Ernest, has been quite sick with erysipelas.... Mr. J. Wade Walker, aged 60 years, died at his home last Tuesday, November 30, and buried at Manse Thursday.... I. C. Rucker who has been of the sick list for some time is improving slowly.... Messrs. Wilson and Johnson, of State University, were visiting Misses Cleone McWhorter and Nell Rice.

BEREA.

Mr. Jas. A. Adams visited his brother, E. E. Adams at Richmond a few days last week.... Mr. Green Bales, of Morgan, Ky., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bales and other relatives, at this place.... Sam Clark has sold his property on Forest street to James Anderson.... Mr. Pitts has purchased the Azbill store on Chestnut street.... Miss Fannie McClure, of Conway, visited Miss Laura Taylor Sunday.... Wednesday of last week.... Mr. and Mrs. John Herndon are the proud parents of a fine baby boy.... Mr. and Mrs. John Muncy motored to Richmond Wednesday on business.... Mr. and Mrs. Estill Jones are moving from Danville here this week to their new home on Chestnut street.

WACO.

Miss Sue D. Chambers spent several days last week with Mrs. Willoughby in Richmond.... Mr. G. P. Bush made a business trip to Cincinnati last week.... Roy, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Click has been critically ill of diphtheria, but is now improving rapidly.... Miss Bessie Lackey, also a member of the Click home has diphtheria.... Miss Lucy R. Thorpe spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Orris Witt in Estill.... Miss Anna Cockrell has been with relatives in Estill county for several days.... Mr. David Witt died last week of pneumonia.... Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Seary, Miss Elizabeth Seary, Miss Katherine and Elizabeth Covington motored to Lexington Saturday.... Judge J. C. Chensault has moved his stock of goods from Elliston to his new store house at the cross roads on the Irvine pike.... Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Peay came to Richmond to assist in organizing a Ladies' Aid Society.... Miss Fannie Bush who is taking treatment under Dr. Smoot in Richmond is improving.... Miss Mary Boggs spent Sunday at home.... Miss Boggs attends the Normal school in Richmond.... Miss Frances Wharton has gone to her home in Valley View for a short stay.... Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conner returned Friday from an extended visit to their daughter in Illinois.... Mr. Beade Conner has almost completed his residence on College Hill pike.

PANOLA.

The Lord has given us a glorious meeting at this place held by Rev. Les Brandenburg and C. O. Wiseman, evangelists. God was well pleased and highly honored in every service. Bro. S. P. Guyon and wife, of Wilmore, Ky., for miles and could hardly find standing room.... Mr. Ernest Covington, agent for the L. & A. at this place, is still on the sick list.... Mr. J. A. Frazier has been working the road between here and the ford at Drowning Creek.... An entertainment and pie supper was held at the Panola school house last Saturday evening. A good time reported.... Mr. Roy Benge is on the sick list.... Mrs. Flen Garrett who has been on the sick list is able to be out.... Mrs. J. B. Wilson attended the funeral of Uncle David Witt last Thursday.... Mrs. J. P. Logsdon is quite sick.... Master Park Dalton is very sick with fever.... Dr. S. H. Johnston spent Wednesday in Richmond.

RED HOUSE.

Mr. and Mrs. Connie Taylor, of Richmond, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Dozier.... Miss Anetta Tribble, of Berea College, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Tribble.... Elihu Biggerstaff was in Waco last week on business.... Mrs. Tom Marshall and daughter, Miss Eliza, spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Lexington.... Miss Emma West, of Richmond, was the guest of friends here Thursday afternoon.... Mrs. Lena Ecton and two children, Kate and William, and Miss Nancy Azbill, of Winchester, were the guest Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. Elihu Biggerstaff.... Master Floyd Cosby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Cosby, had the misfortune of getting three fingers badly mashed in a cutting box a few days ago.... J. W. Merriew who spent several weeks with his sister left for Virginia the 22nd.... Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Stewart entertained on the 21st in honor of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merriew, of Springfield, Tenn.

NOTES FROM EASTERN

From the Office of the Dean

Prof. R. G. Stott returned Wednesday from a trip to Warsaw, Cincinnati and Lexington. While in Lexington by special invitation he spoke at chapel exercises at State University on Tuesday morning.

Hon. H. K. Cole, of Louisville, one of the Regents of the Western State Normal School paid a delightful visit to the campus last Thursday.

Miss Mary E. Sweeney of the Home Economics Department of State University delivered an interesting address Thursday morning at Chapel on the Educational Value of Home Economics. Miss Sweeney is a vivacious speaker and was well received.

Prof. J. S. Pullen and Secretary J. P. Oulbertson returned from Hickman county, Tenn., Wednesday night, where they had gone on the very sad mission of taking Mrs. Pullen's body back to her old home for burial.

The Normal Fathers held a meeting in the President's office last Saturday. Hon. H. M. Brock, of Harlan, Judge J. W. Cammack, of Owenton and Judge Fred A. Vaughn, of Paintsville, were in attendance.

President J. G. Crabbe attended a meeting of State Educators in Frankfort last Monday. The Conference was called together by Superintendent Elect Gilbert.

Miss Marie L. Roberts, Dean of Women spent Monday in Cincinnati, on a visit to her brother and, incidentally, to do some holiday shopping.

Prof. I. H. Boothe delivered an educational address Saturday at Ewing, Kentucky.